The Psychobiology of Bulimia Nervosa Karl M. Pirke, W. Vandereycken, Detlev Ploog, 2012-12-06 Research and Treatment in the Psychobiology of Bulimia Nervosa 1 2 K M Pirke and W Vandereycken

When we were preparing this book the main purpose was to gather the latest in sights from both basic and clinical research in bulimic disorders The burgeoning scientific interest in eating disorders forced us to restrict the focus in such a way that attention was only paid to psychobiological aspects of disturbed nutrition and behavior This implied that other important aspects like sociocultural and familial factors had to be excluded But it turned out that even with such a restricted scope the subject was not an easy one A review of the contributions to this volume clearly shows that our present understanding of bulimia nervosa is still very small Reviewing the hypothalamic and especially neuroendocrine regulation of nutrient balance

Bray has emphasized the importance of the autonomic nervous system in regulating food intake and energy expenditure. The role of insulin, adrenal steroids, gonadal steroids, and growth hormone in modulating nutrient intake and storage were discussed. The studies by Jimerson et al, Schweiger et al, and Fichter et al show that all these factors are altered in bulimic patients, indicating that the whole system of regulating food intake and storage is severely disturbed in bulimia nervosa. Evidence has been presented that neurotransmitter alterations may occur in bulimia. Jimerson et al

Saving Michael: A Bulimia Story: The true story of our Bulimic son, and the powerful intervention of the Living God Jon Hunter with Sherry Hunter, 2017-06-13. Michael was just fifteen years old when he started dieting. He wasn't fat, he wasn't thin either. But he was a strong-minded teenager who was determined to change his own life in a very dramatic way. Michael's obsession with his appearance drew him into a death struggle with Bulimia Nervosa. Sherry and I believed that there was no hope for Michael. We knew that we were losing our youngest son, but at the height of our desperation, God came and touched our lives in a very powerful way. When tragedy enters your life and you feel that you have no hope, don't be afraid. The Lord is close to those who call upon Him. He is only a prayer away, and when He comes, He reveals Himself as the one true God, the Almighty.
