The Armed Forces Covenant in action? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2013-07-18 A series of Ofsted inspections on Army Apprenticeships conducted in 2013 rated the overall effectiveness as good This was an improvement over the last inspection in 2009 rated as satisfactory now called requires improvement Some 28 per cent of Army recruits were less than 18 years of age Further information is needed on why the Army is so dependent on recruiting personnel under the age of 18 years compared to the other two Services and whether steps are being taken to reduce this dependency Of those recruited in 2012 3 5 per cent of the Army were rated at entry level 2 for literacy that of a 7 to 8 year old and 39 per cent had a literacy level of an eleven year old If as the MoD states it has to recruit personnel at whatever level of attainment is available then it should boost remedial action when recruitment entry standards are particularly low In light of changes brought about by Future Force 2020 it may be that recruiting personnel with higher levels of attainment would better meet the future needs of the Armed Forces Whilst the Committee recognises that some recruits may not be eager to take further academic exams the MoD should encourage more recruits to undertake English and Maths GCSEs which would stand them in good stead for future employment The MoD has carried out some useful pilot projects with paramedic training and should identify more potential projects to ensure that vital skills paid for by the MoD are not lost to the country

Inclusivity and Indigeneity in Education for Sustainable Development Behera, Santosh Kumar,Ibrahim, Atyaf Hasan,Romdhani, Faten,2024-06-03 A major issue globally revolves around the urgent need to reshape our education system aligning it with the ambitious Sustainable Development Goals SDGs set to transform the world by 2030 These goals comprising 17 distinct objectives and 169 targets form an ambitious agenda that seeks to recalibrate the global landscape across social economic and environmental dimensions Inclusivity and Indigeneity in Education for Sustainable Development stands as a catalyst for fostering dialogue on the interconnected realms of education indigeneity and sustainable development It explores the relationships between these pillars and offers a comprehensive understanding of their transformative potential The book emphasizes the essence of inclusivity echoing the

No one left behind SDG agenda which goes beyond mere academic discourse to foster fairness and justice Additionally it delves into the invaluable resource of indigenous knowledge transmitted orally across generations and its profound connection to sustainable development By advocating for a shift in education the book calls for an approach that ensures no one is left behind in the teaching and learning process This paradigm shift is envisioned as a broad civilizational project connecting with marginalized communities and tapping into their distinct cultural resources for crafting resilient and sustainable strategies
