South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio, 2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB s objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world
