Bringing Buildings Back From Abandoned Properties To Community Assets:

Bringing Buildings Back Alan Mallach, 2006 Abandoned properties are a plague across the United States from rust belt cities like Detroit and Buffalo to small towns like Lima Ohio and Waterloo Iowa Even in Sunbelt cities such as Houston and Las Vegas abandonment is a major problem as investment flows to the periphery leaving the older inner neighborhoods behind In Bringing Buildings Back Alan Mallach provides policymakers and practitioners with the first in depth guide to understanding and dealing with the many ramifications that this issue holds for the future of our older cities Combining practical suggestions with a thoughtful exploration of policy Mallach pulls together insights from law economics planning and design to address all sides of the problem from how abandonment can be prevented to how best to bring these properties back into productive reuse Focusing on the need for sustainable reuse and revitalization of America's cities and neighborhoods Bringing Buildings Back shows how finding solutions for individual buildings can and must be tied to the larger process of making our cities economically stronger and environmentally sounder places to live and work The book is replete with examples of how cities community development corporations and others have come up with creative effective solutions Written by a distinguished urban planner and practitioner with three decades of experience Bringing Buildings Back provides both a detailed toolkit and a call to rethink the way America carries out urban redevelopment It is a book that should be on the desk of every mayor city planner community developer or neighborhood activist and used in every course on urban redevelopment or neighborhood revitalization

Asset Assessments and Community Social Work Practice Melvin Delgado, Denise Humm-Delgado, 2013-01-18 Needs assessments identify the needs for services answering questions about who needs these services and in what priority Asset assessments focuses on existing resources combining both needs and asset assessments helps find the gaps in these services and is useful to organizations and communities Assets assessments differ dramatically from their needs assessments counterparts along a variety of key dimensions Asset assessments generally attempt to 1 focus on capacities rather than problems needs 2 actively seek community participation and develop collaborative partnerships 3 seek to tap and enhance community competencies 4 seek to equalize power between residents and professionals 5 be proactive rather than reactive to problems and 6 stress community contributions and ownership of the process and are thus empowerment driven

New Metropolitan Perspectives Carmelina Bevilacqua, Francesco Calabrò, Lucia Della Spina, 2020-08-31 This book presents the outcomes of the symposium NEW METROPOLITAN PERSPECTIVES held at Mediterranean University Reggio Calabria Italy on May 26 28 2020 Addressing the challenge of Knowledge Dynamics and Innovation driven Policies Towards Urban and Regional Transition the book presents a multi disciplinary debate on the new frontiers of strategic and spatial planning economic programs and decision support tools in connection with urban rural area networks and metropolitan centers The respective papers focus on six major tracks Innovation dynamics smart cities and ICT Urban regeneration community led practices and PPP Local development inland and urban areas in territorial cohesion strategies Mobility accessibility and infrastructures Heritage landscape and identity and Risk management environment and energy The book also includes a Special Section on Rhegion United Nations 2020 2030 Given its scope the book will benefit all researchers practitioners and policymakers interested in issues concerning metropolitan and marginal areas Neighborhoods, the Blameless Victims of the Subprime Mortgage Crisis United States. Abandonment as a Social Fact Anita De Franco,2021-12-03 This book provides a multidisciplinary approach for the study of the abandonment problem at the inter section among urban studies neo institutionalist perspectives and social ontology An analytical framework based on descriptive and operational issues factors reasons policies has been built to interpret the phenomenon of abandonment and possible ways of intervening The work considers the Italian situation in general terms and examines the case study of Milan in depth This case is interesting because it triggered public discussions on the problem of abandonment in a non shrinking context Moreover recently specific policies to cope with abandonment problem have been introduced The purpose of the book is to show that the problem of the abandonment of urban buildings should be understood as a social fact and not as a brute fact Thus in this work the abandoned state of buildings is considered as not directly related to certain physical variables rather it entirely depends on human evaluations Crucial information in this regard is how institutional frameworks e g sets of rules of conduct influence individual behaviour and actions through time In this view we may identify abandonment as a phenomenon intertwined with the actions of both private and public entities The neo institutional approach helps to highlight how the problem of abandonment is articulated with respect to property rights formal constraints reasons behind policy decisions intervention strategies and implementations Politics and Community-Based Research Sarah Charlton,Sophie Didier,Kirsten Dörmann,Claire Bénit-Gbaffou,2019-10-01 Politics and Community Based Research Perspectives from Yeoville Studio Johannesburg provides a textured analysis of a contested urban space that will resonate with other contested urban spaces around the world and challenges researchers involved in such spaces to work in creative and politicised ways This edited collection is built around the experiences of Yeoville Studio a research initiative based at the School of Architecture and Planning at the University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg Through themed illustrated stories of the people and places of Yeoville the book presents a nuanced portrait of the vibrance and complexity of a post apartheid peri central neighbourhood that has often been characterised as a slum in Johannesburg These narratives are interwoven with theoretical chapters by scholars from a diversity of disciplinary backgrounds reflecting on the empirical experiences of the Studio and examining academic research processes These chapters unpack the engagement of the Studio in Yeoville including issues of trust the need to align policy with lived realities and social needs the political dimensions of the knowledge produced and the ways in which this knowledge was and could be used Smart and Sustainable Planning for Cities and Regions Adriano Bisello,Daniele Vettorato,Håvard Haarstad,Judith Borsboom-van

Beurden,2021-03-22 This book offers a selection of research papers and case studies presented at the 3rd international conference Smart and Sustainable Planning for Cities and Regions held in December 2019 in Bolzano Italy and explores the concept of smart and sustainable planning including top contributions from academics policy makers consultants and other professionals Innovation processes such as co design and co creation help establish collaborations that engage with stakeholders in a trustworthy and transparent environment while answering the need for new value propositions The importance of an integrated holistic approach is widely recognized to break down silos in local government in particular when aimed at achieving a better integration of climate energy planning Despite the ongoing urbanization and polarization processes new synergies between urban and rural areas emerge linking development opportunities to intrinsic cultural natural and man made landscape values The increasing availability of big real time urban data and advanced ICT facilitates frequent assessment and continuous monitoring of performances while allowing fine tuning as needed This is valid not only for individual projects but also on a wider scale In addition and circling back to the first point big urban data and ICT can be of enormous help in facilitating engagement and co creation by raising awareness and by providing insight into the local consequences of specific plans However this potential is not yet fully exploited in standard processes and procedures which can therefore lack the agility and flexibility to keep up with the pulse of the city and dynamics of society The book provides a multi disciplinary outlook based on experience to orient the reader in the giant galaxy of smart and sustainable planning support the transposition of research into practice scale up visionary approaches and design groundbreaking planning policies and tools

Preserving With Purpose Amy Hetletvedt,2025-11-04 While prominent buildings like Notre Dame in Paris rise from the ashes historic buildings in disinvested communities are lost at an alarming rate The resulting holes in the fabric of the community are not only a loss of structures but of the stories and the embedded possibilities that the buildings represent In Preserving with Purpose Reimagining Buildings for Community Benefit architect Amy Hetletvedt unfolds a revolutionary but simple vision for re thinking building conservation in vulnerable communities It begins with the question what can be done now in circumstances or communities when restoration is not wholly fundable not possible or potentially not even desirable Hetletvedt explores contextual approaches to existing buildings in disinvested communities as an alternative to demolition explains why these buildings matter and what communities and professionals can make of them together Preserving With Purpose features profiles and case studies from around the world Four profiles focus on places facing the challenges of vacancy and abandonment which have over time reimagined buildings using the approaches described in the book The profiles include Project Row Houses in Houston Texas The Dorchester Projects and Stony Island Arts Bank in Chicago Illinois Menokin in Warsaw Virginia and the Granby Four Streets in Liverpool England Fifteen case studies cover a broader geographic range and are organized into three purposeful interventions priority practical and poetic Professionals and community members are encouraged to approach historic buildings creatively and collaboratively to invest in strategic mending that not only addresses buildings but benefits communities Preserving with Purpose is a compelling invitation into the beautiful and fruitful middle ground between ruin and restoration The Oxford Handbook of Urban Planning Randall Crane,Rachel Weber,2015 Why plan How and what do we plan Who plans for whom These three questions are then applied across three major topics in planning States Markets and the Provision of Social Goods The Methods and Substance of Planning and Agency Implementation and Decision Making Rural Housing and Economic Development Don E. Albrecht,Scott Loveridge,Stephan Goetz,Rachel Welborn,2017-12-01 Housing is crucial to the quality of life and wellbeing for individuals and families but the availability of adequate or affordable housing also plays a vital role in community economic development Rural areas face a substantial disadvantage compared to urban areas in regard to housing and this book explores these issues Rural Housing and Economic Development includes chapters from nationally known experts from throughout the U S to provide insight to help understand and address the difficult housing concerns within rural areas The chapters cover a variety of issues including housing for rural minorities the extent of and problems associated with mobile home dwelling the extent to which affordable rental housing is available in rural areas the rapidly growing elderly population and the housing consequences of rapid population and economic growth associated with energy development The authors not only describe various housing problems but also suggest policy approaches to more effectively address them This book will be a vital resource to policy makers at the local state or national level as they grapple with difficult rural housing problems Researchers and professionals dealing with housing issues will also benefit from the insights of these experts while the book will also be appropriate for upper level undergraduates or graduate students in courses on housing or economic development
