Bulletproof A Cops Guide To Financial Success:

Bulletproof Brett M. Ward, 2007-03 Non Fiction Fantasy Why do humans use less than one one millionth of their total mental potential Is there anything stopping us from using the rest And if not how do we use the rest but most curiously why do we have so much and use so little And if our body s cells are constantly being replaced why do we grow old and die a contradiction of that restoration process The answers to these questions are what this book is about Obsessed with finding the answers a research scientist spent his entire life digging until he unexpectedly found himself looking into history including even the Bible for clues He then had to subject that book itself the Bible to the scientific method of analysis to either validate it or invalidate it as a creditable source This is not a faith based work but includes a clinical scientific analysis to separate the nebulous world of religious views from palpable truth and reality with a complete disregard for political correctness The discoveries made here are so utterly amazing that the way it has to be told is in an autobiographical story form following the step by step developments of the discovery process This is a true story and this brief statement vastly understates the issues at hand

A Desktop Guide for Nonprofit Directors, Officers, and Advisors Jack B. Siegel, 2006-05-11 How to keep any nonprofit out of trouble running smoothly and accomplishing its mission Jack Siegel lawyer accountant management consultant and computer whiz takes the putative director or officer of a nonprofit organization on a useful and often entertaining voyage throughout the realm of the tax exempt organizations universe pointing out its quirks foibles and legal liabilities along the way His handbook will make mandatory and arresting reading for those who are already serving as trustees directors officers and key employees of exempt organizations particularly charitable ones Siegel s goal in which he succeeds is to help directors and officers of nonprofit organizations make better decisions The book is full of large policy analyses and paragraphs on the details such as board size board committees board meeting formats the contents of minutes and the duties of officers Salted with some excellent real life examples what also sets this book apart from most in its genre is the tone the writing style the brusqueness the bluntness He complains that too many directors check their good judgment at the boardroom door He advises individuals who desire agreement and demand adulation to stay off boards he insists on commitment and institutional tension with the executive director He warns prospective directors that some organizations want in addition to time and judgment either your money or your ability to raise money To my delight he extols the virtues of some level of expenditures for qualified lawyers and accountants Please join me in adding this most helpful handbook to your nonprofit library Bruce R Hopkins Attorney at Law author of The Law of Tax Exempt Organizations Eighth Edition and Starting and Managing a Nonprofit Organization A Legal Guide Fourth Edition
