The Book of Kadam, 2014-05-01 The Kadam school of Tibetan Buddhism emerged in the eleventh century from the teachings of the Indian master Atisa and his principal Tibetan student Dromtonpa Although it no longer exists as an independent school Kadam's teachings were incorporated into the four major schools of Tibetan Buddhism and are still prized today for their unique practical application of the bodhisattva's altruistic ideal in everyday life One of the most cherished teachings stemming from Atisa and Dromtonpa is the collection of esoteric oral transmissions enshrined in The Book of Kadam This volume includes the core texts of the Book of Kadam notably the twenty three chapter dialogue between Atisa and Dromtonpa that is woven around Atisa's Bodhisattva's Jewel Garland as well as complementary texts that illuminate the history and practices of the Kadam tradition

Ornament of Stainless Light Khedrup Norsang Gyatso, 2016-03-08 The premiere volume of Thupten Jinpa's thirty two volume Library of Tibetan Classics series inaugurated to coincide with the Dalai Lama's conferral of the initiation rite of Kalacakra in Toronto in April 2004 The Kalacakra or wheel of time tantra likely entered Indian Mahayana Buddhism around the tenth century In expounding the root tantra the Indian master Pundarika one of the legendary Kalki kings of the land of Shambhala wrote his influential Stainless Light Ornament of Stainless Light is an authoritative Tibetan exposition of this important text composed in the fifteenth century by Khedrup Norsang Gyatso tutor to the Second Dalai Lama One of the central projects of Kalacakra literature is a detailed correlation between the human body and the external universe In working out this complex correspondence the Kalacakra texts present an amazingly detailed theory of cosmology and astronomy especially about the movements of the various celestial bodies The Kalacakra tantra is also a highly complex system of Buddhist theory and practice that employs vital bodily energies deep meditative mental states and a penetrative focus on subtle points within the body's key energy conduits known as channels Ornament of Stainless Light addresses all these topics elaborating on the external universe the inner world of the individual the Kalacakra initiation rites and the tantric stages of generation and completion all in a highly readable English translation

Teaching as the Practice of Wisdom David Smith, 2014-05-22 In the spirit of Paulo Freire this inspiring book deconstructs many of the gods that define contemporary life then offers hope through sources of traditional wisdom It addresses important contemporary discourses in the political and social sciences in ways that are relevant to the personal and professional lives of teachers at all levels of educational practice David G Smith discusses the impacts on teachers' lives of neoconservatism neoliberalism the New Marxism the emerging paradigm of Deep Politics global Wisdom traditions and more and he reveals how teachers can creatively stand with or against these streams of influence By clearly relating larger theoretical discussions in the social sciences to the policies and practices of teaching

Smith builds upon Freire's legacy. He also reaches beyond debates in Western scholarship and accesses new theory from the global South from Buddhist and NeoConfucian traditions as well as the new African Renaissance stream known as Unhu Ubuntu. This is a powerful work of educational theory and philosophy that contains useful advice for educators wishing to push back against conformity.

To Be Oneself Abdallah Nacereddine, 2008-05-13 This autobiography gives a detailed account of his childhood in a primitive society and the conditions prevailing during the Franco Algerian conflict and its aftermath. The book describes his search for a place to settle and his quest to find a niche in society and his chosen profession, tracing his philosophical and psychological course through life. It portrays life in the Muslim community in the USA, the author's relationships with people of all walks of life and origins and his teaching experiences in an international multicultural context. Widely read in world philosophy and religions and psychology, Abdallah Nacereddine provides a penetrating insight into human nature the world over with the accounts of his experiences from philosophical and psychological points of view and his comments on the international events in which he was caught up. His life history is sometimes sad, often funny, but above all thought provoking.
