Rethinking the Republic of Letters Koen Scholten, 2025-10-01

This book offers a revisionist look at the historiography of the Republic of Letters and the community of learning in early modern Europe It suggests a new approach conceptualising the learned world as a web of imagined communities in which the members do not know all their peers These communities formed through distinct memory cultures and the representation of and identification with collective identities Rethinking the Republic of Letters looks at early modern biographical dictionaries vitae eulogies letters travelogues and funerary monuments of early modern learned men to trace the reformation of these communities It thereby offers a novel perspective on early modern learned communities the many Republics of Letters
