In 1978, the first time he took part, Republicans gained control of both houses of Congress. A disappointed Republican majority leader House Speaker Carl Albert admitted Republicans were "totally beaten." President Jimmy Carter said the party's performance was "one of the worst performances ever," and called for even greater congressional reform.

Key Takeaway: The 100-year industrial revolution of capitalism has facilitated some unprecedented benefits and turned most of the world into a middle class. But, increasing global wealth hasn't been evenly distributed in the world. Global inequality is still a fact of life, and the world's poor have been slow to benefit fully and even to support the free market system.
