Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental relations over time contributors take a thematic approach to examine the ways in which we can conceptualise these two very different yet inextricably linked areas of the world Using comparative examples throughout the chronological sections cover Early colonialist contacts between Africa and Asia Modern Asia Africa interactions through diplomacy political networks and societal connections Africa Asia contemporary relations including increasing economic security and environmental cooperation This handbook grapples with major intellectual questions defines current research and projects future agendas of investigation in the field As such it will be of great interest to students of African and Asian Politics as well as researchers and policymakers interested in Asian and African Studies

Developmental States beyond East Asia Jewellord T. Nem Singh, Jesse Salah Ovadia, 2020-05-21 This comprehensive volume reviews recent scholarship regarding the role of the state in economic development With a wide range of case studies of both successful and failed state led development the authors push the analysis of the developmental state beyond its original limitations and into the 21st century New policies institutional configurations and state market relations are emerging outside of East Asia as new developmental states move beyond the historical experience of East Asian development The authors argue for the continued relevance of the developmental state and for understanding globalization and structural transformation through the lens of this approach They further this concept by applying it to analyses of China Latin America and Africa as well as to new frontiers of state led development in Japan and the East Asian developmental states This book expands the scope of research on state led development to encompass new theoretical and methodological innovations and new topics such as governance institution building industrial policy and the role of extractive industries This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Third World Quarterly Asian Tigers, African Lions ,2013-10-02 Asian Tigers African Lions is an anthology of contributions by scholars and former diplomats related to the Tracking Development research project funded by the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs and coordinated by the African Studies Centre and KITLV both in Leiden in collaboration with scholars based in Africa and Asia The project compared the performance of growth and development of four pairs of countries in Southeast Asia and Sub Sahara Africa during the last sixty years It tried to answer the question how two regions with comparable levels of income per capita in the 1950s could diverge so rapidly Why are there so many Asian tigers and not yet so many African lions What could Africa learn from Southeast Asian development trajectories This book has won the Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award 2014 Re-Inventing Africa's Development Jong-Dae

Park,2018-12-31 This open access book analyses the development problems of sub Sahara Africa SSA from the eyes of a Korean diplomat with knowledge of the economic growth Korea has experienced in recent decades The author argues that Africa s development challenges are not due to a lack of resources but a lack of management presenting an alternative to the traditional view that Africa s problems are caused by a lack of leadership In exploring an approach based on mind set and nation building rather than unity which tends to promote individual or party interests rather than the broader country or national interests the author suggests new solutions for SSA s economic growth inspired by Korea s successful economic growth model much of which is focused on industrialisation This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers NGOs and governmental bodies in economics development and politics studying Africa s economic development and Korea s economic growth model Leaders for a New Africa Giovanni Carbone,2019-10-01 Political leadership can be a crucial ingredient for the development of sub Saharan Africa The region has been going through important transformations with both political landscapes and economic trajectories becoming increasingly diverse The changes underway include the role of leadership and its broader impact This volume argues that on the whole African leaders and the way they reach power generally do contribute to shaping their countries progresses and achievements It also zooms in on some influential African leaders who recently emerged in key states across the continent illustrating and explaining the individual paths that brought them to power while reflecting on the prospects for their governments actions Far from the simplistic stereotypes of immovable ineffective and greedy rulers the resulting picture reveals dynamic and rapidly evolving political scenarios with key implications for development in the region Asia after the Developmental State Toby Carroll,Darryl S.
