Asian/Americans, Education, and Crime Nicholas Daniel Hartlep, Daisy Ball, 2016-12-14 Asian Americans Education and Crime The Model Minority as Victim and Perpetrator analyzes Asian Americans interactions with the U S criminal justice system as perpetrators and victims of crime This book contributes to a limited amount of scholarly writing so that researchers policymakers and educators can gain a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the relationship between Asian Americans and the criminal justice system In reality Asian Americans in the United States are both the victims of crime and the perpetrators of crime However their characterization as the model minority masks the victimization and violence they experience in the twenty first century

Challenging Academia Heather Piper, Else-Marie Buch Leander, 2021-09-01 Some social issues and practices have become dangerous areas for academics to research and write about Academic freedom is increasingly constrained not just by long established normal factors territoriality power differentials competition protectionism but also by the increased significance of social media and the rise of identity politics and activists who treat work which challenges their world view as abusive hate speech So extreme are these pressures that some institutions and even statutory bodies now adopt policies and practices which contravene relevant regulations and laws This book seeks to draw attention to the limiting and damaging effects of academic gagging The book drawn from a special edition of Societies offers an eclectic series of international articles which may annoy some people The book challenges taken for granted mainstream assumptions and practices in a number of areas including gender mainstreaming social work education child sexual abuse the ethnic disaggregation of population groups fatherhood and masculinity the erosion of democratic legitimacy the trap of victimhood and vulnerability employment practices in universities and the challenges presented by the widespread and deliberate suppression of scholarship and research In an analytic postscript Laurent Dubreuil discusses the nature of identity politics and the manner in which its effects can be identified across the many topics covered in these challenging articles
