edition of a hugely successful book brings together a range of articles from big names in the field classic texts and new thinking on subcultures and their definitions The Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2 Christopher Partridge, 2006-06-20

Challenging some assessments of religion in the West this study argues that although much organized religion particularly Christianity is in numerical decline in actual fact we are witnessing an alternative spiritual re enchantment of society and culture Non-humans in Social Science Karolína Pauknerová, Marco Stella, Petr Gibas, 2014-12-01 The book explores the issue of non humans and their role and position within contemporary social sciences Inspired by current trends of bridging the dichotomy of nature and culture the authors use the non human as a prism that offers a different perspective of the world society culture and last but not least being s To start paying attention to non humans has the potential to hybridize social sciences and in turn enrich them as well as to offer social scientists novel perspectives and tools to approach social phenomena Such an attitude might in turn lead to a reassessment of understanding of the relationship between the world and being and of the categories of being and subject Hence the potential of non humans to stimulate an ontological shift within social sciences The view of the human and non human as oppositional categories is a remnant of essentially modernist thinking This book represents a response in terms of an attempt to think about humans and non humans outside of the binary division The authors thus want to contribute to the hybridization of social sciences and throughout the book they deal with ontological epistemological and thematical shifts stemming from the hybridization If the non human does not exist as a negation the boundary between the two becomes unclear and overlapping It is with this hybridization the blurring of the boundaries that we are able to come closer to those who inhabit the world non humans and humans alike Digital Media Criticism Anandam P. Kavoori, 2010 Digital Media Criticism is an introductory text about media criticism the act of interpreting and making sense of a range of new media texts that we use and create on a daily basis offering a critical language and a methodological template for interrogating and analyzing the complex texts of digital media Individual chapters connect key methods of media criticism genre auteur cultural ideological and ethnographic with digital culture Case studies of social media user generated content cell phones and video games are provided which include everything from downloading ring tones and making new Facebook friends to creating an avatar texting and opening a window on RL real life Insightful and accessible the book looks at the possibilities and limits of the digital age for us as creators consumers and distributors of content It will be useful to undergraduates studying media criticism digital culture and communication and media literacy and is written to invite them into a conversation about the culture of the digital age
