Assegai Over The Hills:

Battles of South Africa Tim Couzens, 2004 An interesting selection of battles found to be in some way pertinent and important in the often misunderstood South African military history At the Fireside, Vol. 2 Roger Webster, 2001 The stories in this work are the tales of bravery and honour greed and failure hope and despair but ultimately the stories of real people who went beyond the expected and of events that surpassed the ordinary Nkosi's Story Jane Fox, 2002 This is the story of a small black boy and his indomitable white mother's courageous battle against AIDS The Cape Doctor in the Nineteenth Century, 2016-08-29 The Cape Doctor is a social history of medicine which places formal Western medicine within its political social and economic context The work shows the way in which the Cape medical profession excluded all but a few women and black practitioners and discriminated along lines of race class and gender in their practice It revises traditional whiggish and linear accounts of professional advancement but it also moves beyond the classic revisionist tradition which documents the emergence of a society divided along lines of race and gender by providing examples of cultural crossover and medical pluralism It also provides a perspective on a broad historical process within which to understand present debates about the most appropriate health policies in South Africa today The Illustrated at the Fireside Roger Webster, 2003 A new collection of stories about real life characters and events that have shaped our past and that have never been told before e stories of bravery and honor greed and failure hope and despair but ultimately stories of people who went beyond the expected and of events that surpassed the ordinary At the Fireside - Volume 1 Roger Webster, 2013-03-06 At the Fireside was born out of the need to preserve retell and rekindle some of the stories of events and lives that have shaped and coloured South Africa This book recalls our history and enables the reader to relive the stories of our sometimes forgotten past These are tales of bravery and honour greed and failure hope and despair but ultimately the stories are of real people who went beyond the expected and of events that surpassed the ordinary The Reminiscences of Sir Walter Stanford Walter Stanford, 1958 Forging the Blades A Tale of the Zulu Rebellion Bertram Mitford, 2024-01-03 Forging the Blades A Tale of the Zulu Rebellion by Bertram Mitford is a riveting historical fiction novel that transports readers to the heart of South Africa during the tumultuous era of colonialism and the Zulu Rebellion Set against the backdrop of fierce battles and tribal conflict Mitford's narrative is an exhilarating adventure filled with courage survival and the clash of cultures As the British Empire asserts its dominance in South Africa tensions escalate between colonial forces and the indigenous Zulu warriors Amidst the chaos of warfare and rebellion characters are thrust into a struggle for survival navigating the complexities of tribal loyalties and colonial oppression Mitford masterfully captures the spirit of courage and resilience as characters confront the brutal realities of battle and conflict Against the backdrop of historical events the novel immerses readers in the rich tapestry of African history shedding light on the intricacies of colonialism and the enduring legacy of tribal traditions Forging the Blades is a captivating exploration of bravery and defiance in the face of oppression offering readers a poignant reminder of the human cost of empire building and the indomitable spirit of those who resist Seven Years in South Africa Emil Holub, 1881 Reminiscences Sir Walter Ernest Mortimer Stanford, 1962
