

Why I want to be house captain:

Firstly, I am really passionate about being house captain and want to ensure that there is team spirit within my house so that everyone enjoys and has fun participating and also want to motivate and get people excited about being in our house. I have represented the school numerous times and feel that I have so much experience which I would like to use to lead my house

Main role of house captain:

I think the main role of house captain is to encourage others to participate and that the most important thing is that they try their best, participate and have fun. Also to strengthen the relationship between years as this would help to maintain that friendly environment that everyone wants to be part of.

My goal as Heathfields house captain:

My goal as house captain would definitely be to create a stronger community between year groups as this would help to maintain that friendly environment that everyone wants to be part of. We'd aim to do this through strengthening the relationships of all years by carrying out more games in our house assemblies to have fun and increase participation.

How I want to be remembered:

I would really like to be remembered by my house as someone that they weren't afraid to talk to or express their ideas or concerns too, but overall, just someone who they thought was positive and approachable

What is your best leadership quality:

I think my best leadership quality is my positive attitude as I tend to find the positives in negative situations. A positive attitude is somewhat contagious and can up lift people's energy so they can reach their highest potential and I think that is what is needed in a house captain to motivate others to just have fun participating.

What qualities/skills make a good house captain:

- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Positive attitude
- Organisation
- Enthusiasm
- Kind, caring and polite
