Assessing Technology Innovation Postgraduate School:

Using Games and Simulations for Teaching and Assessment Harold F. O'Neil, Eva L. Baker, Ray S. Perez, 2016-03-31 Using Games and Simulations for Teaching and Assessment Key Issues comprises a multidisciplinary investigation into the issues that arise when using games and simulations for educational purposes Using both theoretical and empirical analyses this collection examines cognitive motivational and psychometric issues with a focus on STEM content Unlike other research based volumes that focus solely on game design or the theoretical basis behind gaming this book unites previously disparate communities of researchers from civilian to military contexts as well as multiple disciplines to critically explore current problems and illustrate how instructionally effective games and simulations should be planned and evaluated While computer based simulations and games have the potential to improve the quality of education and training Using Games and Simulations for Teaching and Assessment Key Issues shows how the science of learning should underlie the use of such technologies Through a wide ranging yet detailed examination chapter authors provide suggestions for designing and developing games simulations and intelligent tutoring systems that are scientifically based outcomes driven and cost conscious

Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences
Wade H. Shafer, 2012-12-06 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences was first conceived published and disseminated by the Center for Information and Numerical Data Analysis and Synthesis CINOAS at Purdue University in 1957 starting its coverage of theses with the academic year 1955 Beginning with Volume 13 the printing and dissemination phases of the activity were transferred to University Microfilms Xerox of Ann Arbor Michigan with the thought that such an arrangement would be more beneficial to the academic and general scientific and technical community After five years of this joint undertaking we had concluded that it was in the interest of all concerned if the printing and distribution of the volumes were handled by an international publishing house to assure improved service and broader dissemination Hence starting with Volume 18 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences has been disseminated on a worldwide basis by Plenum Publishing Corporation of New York and in the same year the coverage was broadened to include Canadian universities All back issues can also be ordered from Plenum We have reported in Volume 33 thesis year 1988 a total of 13 273 theses titles from 23 Canadian and 1 85 United States universities We are sure that this broader base for these titles reported will greatly enhance the value of this important annual reference work While Volume 33 reports theses submitted in 1988 on occasion certain universities do report theses submitted in previous years but not reported at the time
