Journals: Volume V Joseph M. Alberts, Leaving a Trace Alexandra Johnson, 2009-09-09 The PEN Award winning author proffers advice for journal keepers who want to develop material for later books or who simply enjoy logging life s events Publishers Weekly Leaving A Trace is a practical guide to keeping a journal successfully and transforming it into future projects Each chapter features both narrative and tailored exercises for beginning and committed diarists Beginners will turn first to quick ways to overcome inhibitions get started and stay on course Seasoned chroniclers will start diaries with a new slant they will learn how to trigger inspiration with creative brainstorming exercises how to note patterns in diaries they already have and how to shape their material Warning if you buy this book you might as well buy a journal at the same time Alexandra Johnson's lovely and practical prose will assist you in overcoming virtually every inhibition you've had about committing words to paper and will inspire you to tell in whatever form you choose the important story of yourself Elizabeth Berg New York Times bestselling author A gifted storyteller Johnson provides examples on how the discipline of daily reflective writing is crucial to nurturing creativity and skillfully weaves together the relationship between the creative process and the craft of writing beautifully written Library Journal Help's writers find practical inspiration discover pattern and meaning and move the material of a journal into memoir or fiction Valuable in all sorts of ways for anyone looking for the right words Booklist An elegantly written study of an increasingly popular genre Kirkus Reviews Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D. Ronner, 2021-01-12 In Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D. Ronner illustrates how self homicide in Fyodor Dostoevsky's fiction prefigures Emile Durkheim's etiology in Suicide as well as theories of other prominent suicidologists This book not only fills a lacuna in Dostoevsky scholarship but provides fresh readings of Dostoevsky's major works including Notes from The House of the Dead Crime and Punishment The Idiot Demons and The Brothers Karamazov Ronner provides an exegesis of how Dostoevsky's implicit awareness of fatalistic altruistic egoistic and anomic modes of self destruction helped shape not only his philosophy but also his craft as a writer In this study Ronner contributes to the field of suicidology by anatomizing both self destructive behavior and suicidal ideation while offering ways to think about prevention But most expansively Ronner tackles the formidable task of forging a ligature between artistic creation and the pluripresent social fact of self annihilation

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Barnes And Noble Notebooks

In some sort of used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous interaction, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the published word often disappear in to the background, eclipsed by the constant sound and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of Barnes And Noble Notebooks a stunning literary prize brimming with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching review, we shall explore the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
