Der von Kurenberg Gayle Agler-Beck, 1978-01-01 Der von Kurenberg was one of the first named poets to write in Middle High German language This study presents a modified diplomatic edition of the fifteen strophes text by Der von Kurenberg It offers a commentary on the original text and discusses the literary and interpretative problems connected with the poet's work The Pleasures of Memory Sarah Winter, 2015-08-03 What are the sources of the commonly held presumption that reading literature should make people more just humane and sophisticated Rendering literary history responsive to the cultural histories of reading publishing and education The Pleasures of Memory illuminates the ways in which Dickens's serial fiction shaped not only the popular practice of reading for pleasure and instruction but also the school subject we now know as English Winter shows how Dickens's serial fiction instigated specific reading practices by reworking the conventions of religious didactic tracts from which most Victorians learned to read Incorporating an influential associationist psychology of learning founded on the cumulative functioning of memory Dickens's serial novels consistently led readers to reflect on their reading as a form of shared experience Dickens's celebrity authorship Winter argues represented both a successful marketing program for popular fiction and a cultural politics addressed to a politically unaffiliated social activist Victorian readership As late nineteenth century educational reforms consolidated British and American readers into mass populations served by state school systems Dickens's beloved novels came to embody the socially inclusive and humanizing goals of democratic education American Printer and Lithographer, 1981 Cut Stones and Crossroads Ronald Wright, 2015-10-06

Traveling through Peru tracing the history of the Incas from their royal cities of Cusco and Machu Picchu to their mythic origin in Lake Titicaca Ronald Wright explores a country of contrasts between Spanish and Indian past and present coastal desert and mountainous interior In his highly entertaining and perceptive account Wright brings to life a complex culture a land of ancient traditions seeking its place in the modern world Embracing history politics anthropology and literature Cut Stones and Crossroads is a fascinating travel memoir and the study of a civilization by a writer who has won international awards as both a novelist and a historian Chain Store Age, 2008-07 Gods of Our Fathers Richard A.

Gabriel, 2001-11-30 Gabriel offers a startling new look at Judaism and Christianity by attempting to trace their historical theological roots not to the revelations of God but to the common theological ancestor the religions of ancient Egypt Using new material only recently made available by archaeology Gabriel shows how the theological premises of Christianity were in existence three thousand years before Christ and how the heresy of Akhenaten became the source for Moses Judaism Gabriel begins with the challenge that the dawn of man's ethical conscience began in Egypt by 3400 BCE long before the age of revelation in the West Over the course of 3000 years Egyptian theologians developed a complete theology of trinitarian monotheism immortality of the soul resurrection and a post mortem judgment within the Osiris myth These concepts existed nowhere else in the ancient world and were passed directly to Christianity In 1200 BCE the heretic pharaoh Akhenaten abandoned Egyptian tradition and invented his own theology of a single god no immortal soul no resurrection and no post mortem judgment This tradition was passed to the West through Moses whose Judaic theology is identical to Akhenaten's
