Bas Jan Ader Please Dont Leave Me:

Bas Jan Ader Alexander Dumbadze, 2013-05-27 On July 9 1975 Dutch born artist Bas Jan Ader set sail from Chatham Massachusetts on a thirteen foot sailboat He was bound for Falmouth England on the second leg of a three part piece titled In Search of the Miraculous The damaged boat was found south of the western tip of Ireland nearly a year later Ader was never seen again Since his untimely death Ader has achieved mythic status in the art world as a figure literally willing to die for his art Considering the artist s legacy and concise oeuvre beyond the romantic and tragic associations that accompany his peculiar end Alexander Dumbadze resituates Ader s art and life within the conceptual art world of Los Angeles in the early 1970s and offers a nuanced argument about artistic subjectivity that explains Ader s tremendous relevance to contemporary art Bas Jan Ader blends biography theoretical reflection and archival research to draw a detailed picture of the world in which Ader s work was rooted a vibrant international art scene populated with peers such as Ger van Elk William Leavitt and Allen Ruppersberg Dumbadze looks closely at Ader s engagement with questions of free will and his ultimate success in creating art untainted by mediation The first in depth study of this enigmatic conceptual artist Bas Jan Ader is a thoughtful reflection on the necessity of the creative act and its inescapable relation to death Bas Jan Ader Bas Jan Ader, 2006 Thirty years after Bas Jan Ader failed to return from a solo crossing of the Atlantic the interest in his work continues to grow In less than ten years he created some thirty five works of art in which falling physical and emotional vulnerability and mortality are the central themes Published to coincide with a retrospective exhibition this thoroughly illustrated catalogue provides a much needed overview of these and other aspects of Ader s work Also includes contributions by Tacita Dean J rg Heiser and Erik Beenker amongst others

Bas Jan Ader Jan Verwoert, 2006-05-26 An illustrated investigation into the critical motives behind the last unfinished work that has defined the romantic legacy of conceptual artist Bas Jan Ader In 1975 Bas Jan Ader disappeared at sea while trying to sail from the East Coast of the United States to Europe as part of a project titled In Search of the Miraculous Ader s considerable influence on later conceptual artists stems from the way in which he used the cool analytic and antisubjective aesthetics of conceptual art to explore experiences that would seem definitively subjective the emotional intensity of tragedy and the romantic quest for the sublime In Search of the Miraculous was conceived as a three part project a lonely nighttime walk from the hills of Los Angeles down to the sea documented in photographs the Atlantic crossing a night walk through Amsterdam mirroring the LA photographs The circumstances of his disappearance have led many interpreters to identify Ader as a person with the role of the tragic romantic hero The cult status of the artist as a hero whose work is authenticated through his death however has obscured the fact that Ader s art was a critical investigation of precisely those romantic motives his persona has now come to be identified with This book unpicks these ties in Ader s work in order to highlight the specific and unique way in which Ader explores the existential and emotional with an artistic approach that is as conceptual and analytic as it is poetic and personal Afterall Books are distributed by The MIT Press

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al's Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art

The Power of Satire Marijke Meijer Drees, Sonja de Leeuw, 2015-10-15 Satire is clearly one of today's most controversial socio cultural topics In this edited volume The Power of Satire it is studied for the first time as a dynamic discursive mode of performance with the power of crossing and contesting cultural boundaries The collected essays reflect the fundamental shift from literary satire or straightforward literary rhetoric with a relatively limited societal impact to satire's multi mediality in the transnational public space where it can cause intercultural clashes and negotiations on a large scale An appropriate set of heuristic themes space target rhetoric media time serves as the analytical framework for the investigations and determines the organization of the book as a whole The contributions written by an international group of experts with diverse disciplinary backgrounds manifest academic standards with a balance between theoretical analyses and evaluations on the one hand and in depth case studies on the other

Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's Straight out of the can it can't get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst

Conceptual Performance Nick Kaye, 2023-12-22 Conceptual Performance explores how the radical visual art that challenged material aesthetics in the 1960s and 1970s tested and extended the limits character and concept of performance Conceptual Performance sets out the history theoretical basis and character of this genre of work through a wide range of case studies The volume considers how and why principal modes and agendas in Conceptual art in the 1960s and 1970s necessitated new engagements with performance as well as expanded notions of theatricality In doing so this book reviews and challenges prevailing histories of Conceptual art through critical frameworks of performativity and performance It also considers how Conceptual art adopted and redefined terms and tropes of theatre and performance including score document embodiment documentation relic remains and the narrative recuperation of ephemeral work While showing how performance has been integral to Conceptual art s critiques of prevailing assumptions about art s form purpose and meaning this volume also considers the reach and influence of Conceptual performance into recent thinking and practice This book will be of interest to scholars and students of theatre performance contemporary art and art history Shipwreck in Art and Literature

Carl Thompson, 2014-05-09 Tales of shipwreck have always fascinated audiences and as a result there is a rich literature of suffering at sea and an equally rich tradition of visual art depicting this theme Exploring the shifting semiotics and symbolism of shipwreck the interdisciplinary essays in this volume provide a history of a major literary and artistic motif as they consider how depictions have varied over time and across genres and cultures Simultaneously they explore the imaginative potential of shipwreck as they consider the many meanings that have historically attached to maritime disaster and suffering at sea Spanning both popular and high culture and addressing a range of political spiritual aesthetic and environmental concerns this cross cultural comparative study sheds new light on changing attitudes to the sea especially in the West In particular it foregrounds the role played by the maritime in the emergence of Western modernity and so will appeal not only to those interested in literature and art but also to scholars in history geography international relations and postcolonial studies The Artist in the Counterculture Thomas Crow, 2023-01-24 An examination of the counterculture movement in California and how it both influenced and was influenced by art
