William Faulkner

Absalom Absalom Modern Library:

Absalom, Absalom! William Faulkner, 1993-11-09 From the Modern Library's new set of beautifully repackaged hardcover classics by William Faulkner also available are Snapes As I Lay Dying The Sound and the Fury Light in August and Selected Short Stories One of The Atlantic's Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years First published in 1936 Absalom Absalom is William Faulkner's ninth novel and one of his most admired It tells the story of Thomas Sutpen and his ruthless single minded attempt to forge a dynasty in Jefferson Mississippi in 1830 Although his grand design is ultimately destroyed by his own sons a century later the figure of Sutpen continues to haunt young Quentin Compson who is obsessed with his family legacy and that of the Old South Faulkner's novels have the quality of being lived absorbed remembered rather than merely observed noted Malcolm Cowley Absalom Absalom is structurally the soundest of all the novels in the Yoknapatawpha series and it gains power in retrospect This edition follows the text of Absalom Absalom as corrected in 1986 under the direction of Faulkner expert Noel Polk and features a new Foreword by John Jeremiah Sullivan Absalom, Absalom!, 1964

William Faulkner Cleanth Brooks, 1989-12-01 Hailed by critics and scholars as the most valuable study of Faulkner's fiction Cleanth Brooks's William Faulkner The Yoknapatawpha Country explores the Mississippi writer's fictional county and the commanding role it played in so much of his work Brooks shows that Faulkner's strong attachment to his region with its rich particularity and deep sense of community gave him a special vantage point from which to view the modern world Books's consideration of such novels as Light in August The Unvanquished As I Lay Dying and Intruder in the Dust shows the ways in which Faulkner used Yoknapatawpha County to examine the characteristic themes of the twentieth century Contending that a complete understanding of Faulkner's writing cannot be had without a thorough grasp of fictional detail Brooks gives careful attention to what happens In the Yoknapatawpha novels He also includes useful genealogies of Faulkner's fictional clans and a character index Absalom, Absalom. Faulkner William Faulkner, 1964 Gabriel Garcia Marquez, Updated

Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of eleven critical essays on the works of Colombian writer Gabriel Garcia Marquez The Modern Library Carmen Callil, Colm Toibin, 2011-06-30 For Colm Toibin and Carmen Callil there is no difference between literary and commercial writing there is only the good novel engrossing inspirational compelling In their selection of the best 200 novels written since 1950 the editors make a case for the best and the best loved works and argue why each should be considered a modern classic Enlightening often unexpected and always engaging this tour through the world of fiction is full of surprises forgotten masterpieces and a valuable guide to what to read next Authors in the collection include Agatha Christie Georgette Heyer Daphne du Maurier Patrick Hamilton Carson McCullers J D Salinger Bernard Malamud Flannery O'Connor Mulk Raj Anand Raymond Chandler L P Hartley Amos Tutuola Sylvia Townsend Warner Samuel Beckett Patricia Highsmith Chinua Achebe Isak Dineson Alan Sillitoe Ivy Compton Burnett Grace Paley Harper Lee Olivia Manning and Mordecai Richler The Modern Library Writer's Workshop Stephen Koch, 2009-05-14 Make your characters want something right away even if it's only a glass of water Characters paralyzed by the meaninglessness of modern life still have to drink water from time to time Kurt Vonnegut The cat sat on the mat is not the beginning of a story but the cat sat on the dog's mat is John Le Carr Nothing is more inspiring for a beginning writer than listening to masters of the craft talk about the writing life But if you can't get Vladimir Nabokov Virginia Woolf and Gabriel Garcia Marquez together at the Algonquin The Modern Library Writer's Workshop gives you the next best thing Stephen Koch former chair of Columbia University's graduate creative writing program presents a unique guide to the craft of fiction Along with his own lucid observations and commonsense techniques he weaves together wisdom advice and inspiring commentary from some of our greatest writers Taking you from the moment of inspiration keep a notebook with you at all times to writing a first draft do it quickly you can always revise later to figuring out a plot plot always serves the story not vice versa Koch is a benevolent mentor glad to dispense sound advice when you need it most The Modern Library Writer's Workshop belongs on every writer's shelf to be picked up and pored over for those moments when the muse needs a little help finding her way

Modernism, Middlebrow and the Literary Canon Lise Jaillant, 2015-10-06 In the 1920s and 1930s the Modern Library series began to bring out cheap editions of modernist works Jaillant provides a thorough analysis of the series mix of highbrow and popular literature and argues that the availability and low cost of modernist works helped to expand modernism's influence as a literary movement

Faulkner's Heroic Design Lynn Gartrell Levins, 2008-11-01 In this discerning study of Faulkner's major novels from Sartoris to The Reivers Lynn Levins answers the criticism that the fictional world of William Faulkner is not heroic enough Her study analyzes his heroic design his rendering of the events of his rural community of Yoknapatawpha against scenes from myth classical drama epic poetry and chivalric and historical romance In each case Faulkner is not parodying traditional literary modes to focus on the grotesque diminution of legend and myth in Yoknapatawpha County rather he is writing in As I Lay Dying and Old Man and The Hamlet of the fulfillment of an ethical obligation When that obligation is met in spite of temptations and difficulties then the action of Anse Burden or the tall convict or the idiot Ike Snopes approaches heroic proportions Behind the chivalric framework of the tall convict's epic journey or the identification of Thomas Sutpen as the old Greek tragic hero lies a heroic ideal By employing such a design Faulkner affirms man's historical continuity and asserts his belief that in the twentieth century the heroic is still possible

Dwelling in the Text Marilyn R. Chandler, 2023-11-15 What is a house And what can architecture tell us about individual psychology national character and aspiration The house holds a central place in American mythology as Marilyn Chandler demonstrates in a series of house tours through American novels beginning with Thoreau's Walden and ending with Toni Morrison's Beloved and Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping Chandler illuminates the complex analogies between house and psyche house and family house and social environment and house and text She traces a historical path from settlement to unsettledness in American culture and explores all the rituals in between of building decorating inhabiting and abandoning houses She notes the ambivalence between our desire for rootedness and our romanticization of wide open spaces relating these poles to the tension between materialism and spirituality in our national character At a time when housing has become a problem of unprecedented dimensions in America this look at the place of houses and homes in the American imagination reveals some sources of the attitudes assumptions and expectations that underlie the designing and building of the homes we buy sell and dream about This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991
