Accent Modification Manual Materials And Activities:

Accent Modification Manual Harold T. Edwards, Kathy Harris Strattman, 1996 The Accent Modification Manual helps students use their cognitive and problem solving abilities to examine the key elements of the intonation system of American English how it is organized and more importantly how it works in communication The strategies in this text provide the framework for the life long process of modifying an accent This text is an especially creative way of engaging learners in the process and eliciting ownership of and a commitment to their own personalized improvement plan Thinking About Speaking: The Adastra Approach to Mastering the American Accent Christi Barb, 2025-05-30 Communication is more than words it's connection understanding and the foundation of relationships For non native English speakers communicating clearly in American English can be challenging with misunderstandings creating distance and frustration In Thinking About Speaking Dr Christi Barb an expert with 25 years of experience in accent modification and speech language instruction offers a research based approach to refining spoken communication This book goes beyond surface level pronunciation drills exploring the deeper cognitive aspects of speech Through engaging explanations and insightful case studies you'll discover The science of accents and how they shape identity perception and connection The role of memory in speech in how it facilitates learning retention and recall A systematic approach to teaching and learning changes to speech Strategies for measuring progress and building habits that lead to lasting change Designed for English language teachers and learners alike Thinking About Speaking provides the foundation that bridges gaps in traditional speech instruction and empowers speakers to make lasting changes Whether you're a professional looking to enhance your speech or an educator seeking innovative methods this book will transform the way you think about speaking Communication and Swallowing Changes in Healthy Aging Adults Angela N. Burda, 2010-05 Communication and Swallow Changes in Healthy Aging Adults compiles and presents the available research on healthy aging adults performance and abilities in the following areas auditory comprehension reading comprehension speaking writing voice and motor speech abilities cognition and swallowing This text also presents principles from the World Health Organization's International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health and its applications to aging adults One of the first texts to cover these principles this book will address the need for a comprehensive view of communication and swallow issues in aging for students of speech language pathology Speech language pathologist students will learn how to fully compare what would be considered normal for their elderly patients rather than overestimating or underestimating what aging adults are capable of doing Knowing what would be considered within the spectrum of normal will help speech language pathologists to address therapy as effectively as possible Having this information at hand is particularly important as the nation's population is aging at a rapid rate and there is a need for evidence based practice in speech language pathology Written in an easy to follow format Communication and Swallow Changes in Healthy Aging Adults includes original research data discussion questions and a list of Quick Facts at the end of each chapter to summarize key points This text will serve as a useful resource as students see elderly clients in on campus speech and hearing clinics and when they intern at hospitals and long term care facilities Instructor Resources PowerPoint Slides and an Image Bank Testimonial Communication and Swallowing Changes in Healthy Aging Adults is a handy text portable and logically organized The information is easy to follow complimented by information presented in tables charts This text would be helpful to a practicing therapist when making a differential diagnosis between a normal vs atypical aging process Communication and Swallowing Changes in Healthy Aging Adults would be an appropriate text for courses in Communications Disorders Departments for graduate students in a neuro course or a neurogenic communication disorders course and in lifespan development courses as in the field of Psychology and Gerontology Susan Durnford M S CCC SLP Clinical Assistant Professor Department of Speech Language Pathology Audiology Ithaca College Features and Benefits Quick Facts at the end of each chapter summarizing key points Discussion questions for instructor use Useful resource for on campus clinics and internships Instructor Resources include PowerPoint Slides and an Image Bank SLP Issues in Aging and Accented Speech Motor Speech Disorders Voice Disorders Aphasia and Related Disorders Dysphagia 2011 194 pages

Here's How to Do Accent Modification Robert McKinney, 2019-03-15 Here s How to Do Accent Modification A Manual for Speech Language Pathologists is designed for speech language pathologists SLPs working with clients on accent modification in American English A growing number of non native speakers are interested in improving their communication skills and SLPs need preparation to work with this clientele The text provides copious advice and many diverse techniques for teaching accent modification from the level of basic sounds to the level of discourse The text emphasizes realistic goal setting so that clients focus on becoming effective communicators as opposed to sounding exactly like native speakers The objective is a balance between clear and natural speech Many SLPs favor intelligibility over naturalness because of their backgrounds working with speech delayed children but with non native speakers this often leads to unnatural speech and listeners focus on how something is said as opposed to what is said Here s How to Do Accent Modification is uniquely geared toward the skills and backgrounds of SLPs working with clients in a one on one setting but is also an excellent introductory text for any English as a Second Language ESL teacher Robert McKinney brings this unique perspective as a speech language pathologist with degrees in both Communication Disorders and Teaching English as a Second Language Also included with the text are numerous practical activities and worksheets for working with clients The ebook includes audio files and video clips to demonstrate working with non native speakers

Foundations of Communication Sciences & Disorders Paul T. Fogle, 2008 Full color textbook introducing concepts in communication sciences and disorders Written in accessible engaging and caring language it is rooted in the American Speech Language Hearing Association s Big Nine knowledge and skill areas Units provide cohesive big picture introductions and conclusions while individual chapters focus on key information in smaller more detailed packages Going beyond expectations for an introductory text it explores the emotional and social effects of disorders to help readers truly understand the profession Resources in Education ,1998-05
