Arkansas in Modern America since 1930 Ben F. Johnson III, 2019-08-30 This second edition of Arkansas in Modern America since 1930 represents a significant rewriting of and elaboration on the first edition published in 2000 Historian Ben F Johnson fills in gaps reconsiders his original conclusions and reflects on new developments in historical scholarship extending the book's analysis of the political economic social and cultural positions into 2018 Particularly impressive for the breadth of its scope Arkansas in Modern America since 1930 offers an overview of the factors that moved Arkansas from a primarily rural society to one more in step with the modern economy and perspectives of the nation as a whole The narrative covers the roles of Daisy Bates Sam Walton Don Tyson Bill Clinton and other influential figures in the state's history to reveal a state shaped by global as much as by local forces The second edition of this important book will continue to set the standard for analysis and interpretation of Arkansas's place in the contemporary world

All Hell Breaking Loose Michael T. Klare, 2019-11-12 All Hell Breaking Loose is an eye opening examination of climate change from the perspective of the U S military The Pentagon unsentimental and politically conservative might not seem likely to be worried about climate change still linked for many people with polar bears and coral reefs Yet of all the major institutions in American society none take climate change as seriously as the U S military Both as participants in climate triggered conflicts abroad and as first responders to hurricanes and other disasters on American soil the armed services are already confronting the impacts of global warming The military now regards climate change as one of the top threats to American national security and is busy developing strategies to cope with it Drawing on previously obscure reports and government documents renowned security expert Michael Klare shows that the U S military sees the climate threat as imperiling the country on several fronts at once Droughts and food shortages are stoking conflicts in ethnically divided nations with climate refugees producing worldwide havoc Pandemics and other humanitarian disasters will increasingly require extensive military involvement The melting Arctic is creating new seaways to defend And rising seas threaten American cities and military bases themselves While others still debate the causes of global warming the Pentagon is intensely focused on its effects Its response makes it clear that where it counts the immense impact of climate change is not in doubt

Dardanelle and the Bottoms Mildred D. Gleason, 2017-08-15 Between 1819 and 1970 the town of Dardanelle Arkansas located on the south side of the Arkansas River in Yell County Arkansas experienced sustained prosperity and growth made possible by the nearby farming community known as the Dardanelle Bottoms A reciprocal relationship between the town and the Bottoms formed the economic backbone on which the area's well being was balanced The country people came to town on Saturdays to buy their groceries and supplies to shop and take in a movie or visit the pool halls or barbershops Merchants relied heavily on this country trade and had a long history of extending credit keeping prices reasonable and offering respect and appreciation to their customers This interdependence stable for decades began to unravel in the late 1940s with changes in farming particularly the cotton industry In Dardanelle and the Bottoms Mildred Diane Gleason explores this complex rural town dichotomy revealing and analyzing key components of each area including aspects of race education the cotton economy and its demise the devastation of floods and droughts leisure crime and the impact of the Great Depression Leading Professional Development Mary H. Moen, Sarah A. Buchanan, 2020-11-04 This book shows how LIS schools and professional organizations can help information professionals to continue their education after finishing formal programs to keep up with the growing demands of the field As technology rapidly advances the need for continuing education increases at an accelerating rate Within 10 12 years of completing formal education most information professionals knowledge and skills become out of date leaving them only half as able to meet the new demands of the profession Additionally the increase in online education programs for LIS students can limit their connection with practicing professionals and in some locations their engagement with diverse populations LIS schools and professional development organizations however can support professional development in new and exciting ways Readers will learn how faculty in LIS schools are innovating their courses and providing continuing education experiences Taking advantage of the benefits of online digital and experiential learning projects they are creating meaningful collaborative learning opportunities between students and practitioners in the field The book also addresses how social media tools can help online students experience interactive community learning and network within the profession before they start their positions
