About To Die How News Images Move The Public:

About to Die Barbie Zelizer, 2010-12-01 Images of people about to die surface repeatedly in the news particularly around the difficult and unsettled events of war political revolution terrorism natural disaster and other crises Their appearance raises questions What equips an image to deliver the news how much does the public need to know to make sense of what they see and what do these images contribute to historical memory About To Die addresses these questions by using images of imminent death as a litmus test for considering news imagery and visual meaning more broadly About to Die: How News Images Move the Public Barbie Zelizer, 2010-12-01 Due to its ability to freeze a moment in time the photo is a uniquely powerful device for ordering and understanding the world But when an image depicts complex ambiguous or controversial events terrorist attacks wars political assassinations its ability to influence perception can prove deeply unsettling Are we really seeing the world as it is or is the image a fabrication or projection How do a photo's content and form shape a viewer's impressions What do such images contribute to historical memory About to Die focuses on one emotionally charged category of news photograph depictions of individuals who are facing imminent death as a prism for addressing such vital questions Tracking events as wide ranging as the 1906 San Francisco Earthquake the Holocaust the Vietnam War and 9 11 Barbie Zelizer demonstrates that modes of journalistic depiction and the power of the image are immense cultural forces that are still far from understood Through a survey of a century of photojournalism including close analysis of over sixty photos About to Die provides a framework and vocabulary for understanding the news imagery that so profoundly shapes our view of the world Image Warfare in the War on Terror N. Roger, 2013-01-11 Roger examines how developments in new media technologies such as the internet blogs camera video phones have fundamentally altered the way in which governments militaries terrorists NGOs and citizens engage with images He argues that there has been a paradigm shift from techno war to image warfare which emerged on 9 11 Radical Reality Caty Borum, Caty Borum Chattoo, David Conrad-Pérez, 2025-04-11 Radical Reality reveals how independent documentary makers around the world produce cinematic stories that speak truth to power and why nonfiction storytelling matters for social justice Pushing against increasingly difficult political and economic constraints these tenacious filmmakers produce artistic nonfiction stories that stand up for freedom of expression serve as witnesses to conflict and resilience maintain cultural memory of human rights abuses and open intimate windows into acts of protest activism reconciliation and resistance that often go unseen in dominant news portrayals They collaborate with activists and civil society leaders to create powerful movements of dissent centering underrepresented voices providing spaces for community healing and recognition and challenging damaging narratives of people and their lived realities and they do so in significant times Across the globe forms of repression continue to be wielded against artists who challenge power And yet there is hope and inspiration found in the hands of storytellers who marshal a way forward again and again to push the status quo toward justice This book tells their stories News Photographer

,2006 The Writers Directory ,2013 Visual Propaganda and Extremism in the Online Environment Carol Winkler, Cori Elizabeth Dauber, 2014 Visual images have been a central component of propaganda for as long as propaganda has been produced But recent developments in communication and information technologies have given terrorist and extremist groups options and abilities they never would have been able to come close to even 5 or 10 years ago There are terrorist groups who with very little initial investment are making videos that are coming so close to the quality of BBC or CNN broadcasts that the difference is meaningless and with access to the web they have instantaneous access to a global audience Given the broad social science consensus on the power of visual images relative to that of words the strategic implications of these groups sophistication in the use of images in the online environment is carefully considered in a variety of contexts by the authors in this collection Picturing Atrocity Geoffrey Batchen, Mick Gidley, Nancy K. Miller, Jay Prosser, 2012 This title taps into the widespread interest in and concern about photographs of atrocity The book contains a broad range of atrocity photographs from throughout history and around the world as well as essays by well known artists and photographers Public Opinion ,1888 The Film Renter and Moving Picture News ,1923
