Prehistoric Alex Wong, 2023-10-24 The improbable story of the birth of modern day pro basketball in Toronto In just over 25 years the Toronto Raptors have evolved from an intrepid expansion team to an NBA champion But for all the triumphs of the past decade the beginning looked a bit different When the franchise began its first season in 1995 a pro basketball team in Toronto was viewed as an experiment There was no playbook to follow and very few people gave them a chance to succeed In Prehistoric irreverent Raptors voice and culture writer Alex Wong explores the franchise's fascinating and unconventional inception through 140 original interviews with those involved with the team's very beginning examining the process of how the team came up with their name and logo inspired by the blockbuster film Jurassic Park taking a behind the scenes look at the drafting of star point guard Damon Stoudamire telling the backstories of a group of misfits who formed the first year roster and providing an in depth look at the team's opening night victory at the SkyDome and the expansion franchise's signature win over Michael Jordan and a 72 win Chicago Bulls team The Raptors boldly and intentionally pursued a much different audience in a hockey first town The result is a team who went through the necessary growing pains and eventually captured the heart of a city as told in this essential origin story through the lens of the people who were there to help lay the foundation for a thriving modern day basketball franchise in Toronto

Prehistoric Future Ralph Ubl, 2013-11-06 One of the most admired artists of the twentieth century Max Ernst was a proponent of Dada and founder of surrealism known for his strange evocative paintings and drawings In Prehistoric Future Ralph Ubl approaches Ernst like no one else has using theories of the unconscious surrealist automatism Freudian psychoanalysis the concept of history as trauma to examine how Ernst's construction of collage departs from other modern artists Ubl shows that while Picasso Braque and Man Ray used scissors and glue to create collages Ernst employed techniques he himself had forged rubbing and scraping to bring images forth onto a sheet of paper or canvas to simulate how a screen image or memory comes into the mind's view In addition Ernst scoured the past for obsolete scientific illustrations and odd advertisements to illustrate the rapidity with which time passes and to simulate the apprehension generated when rapid flows of knowledge turn living culture into artifact Ultimately Ubl reveals Ernst was interested in the construction and phenomenology of both collective and individual modern history and memory Shedding new light on Ernst's working methods and the reasons that his pieces continue to imprint themselves in viewers' memories Prehistoric Future is an innovative work of critical writing on a key figure of surrealism

Prehistoric Humans in Film and Television Michael Klossner, 2015-01-09 From the early days of the movies cavemen have been a popular subject for filmmakers not surprisingly since the birth of cinema occurred only a few decades after the earliest scientific studies of prehistoric man Filmmakers however were not constrained by the emerging science instead they most often took a comedic look at prehistory a trend that continued throughout the 20th century Prehistoric humans also populated adventure fantasy films with the original One Million B C 1940 leading the charge Documentaries were also made but it was not until the 1970s that accurate film accounts of prehistoric humans finally emerged This exhaustive work provides detailed accounts of 581 film and television productions that feature depictions of human prehistory Included are dramas and comedies set in human prehistory documentaries and films and television shows in which prehistoric people somehow exist in historical periods from the advent of civilization up to the present or in extraterrestrial settings Each entry includes full filmographic data including year of release running time production personnel cast information and format A description of each film provides background on the prehistoric elements Contemporary critical commentary is included for many of the works

The Quest for Power from Prehistoric Times to the Present Day Hugh P. Vowles, Margaret Winifred Pearce Vowles, Mrs. Margaret Winifred (Pearce) Vowles, 1931 Elin Wagner's Alarm Clock Katarina Leppänen, 2008-01-01 In what way did ecological feminist thinking contribute to feminist criticism of the prevailing social order during the interwar period This book shows how ecology was part of both matriarchalist and political feminist thinking in the period

The Vacant Space Jaime Perez, 2014-04-08 As he trudges through his wealthy yet introverted life Thomas Silva has carefully managed to compensate through the years for his lack of human connection by monetarily helping struggling members of his community but this impersonal and unorthodox method of getting by is beginning to lose its effectiveness and is no longer serving its purpose A less than social childhood fused together with a fair share of uncertainty from his past has unfortunately carried on to Thomas adult life making him the reclusive person he is now It is not until he experiences a series of life changing events that Thomas begins to consider a serious and much needed change in perspective towards his unfulfilling life A Vacant Space is about one's lonely journey through existence as merely a passive spectator in the volatile game of life a lonely journey that desperately needs to begin onto another path anew It is never too late to start a new beginning even if you feel you are already so close to the end

The Evolution Of Gods : The Scientific Origin Of Divinity And Religion Ajay Kansal, 2012-04-23 Did gods create mankind or did mankind create gods Why when and how did mankind begin to worship gods Religious scriptures the world over claim that one or the other god made man but science has not yet identified any supernatural power that created and governed human beings Was it man who came up with the idea of gods to help him cope with his own fears Could it be that ancient people attributed natural phenomena unfathomable and frightening to them to the working of invisible gods What kind of sufferings or bewilderments made people bow before unseen powers or gods as we call them When were these gods created Who invented morals and methods of worship Who wrote the ancient scriptures such as the Bible and the Vedas Most
