Sin and Mental Ailments Paul Ungar, 2020-03-31 In Romans 7 15 St Paul expressed frustration with something all of us can relate to saying I do not understand what I do For what I want to do I do not do but what I hate I do Despite our best efforts to live our lives as we ought to we repeatedly fall into the trap of not understanding what we do and constantly perpetrating the same missteps we have previously vowed never to take again What is the reason of our deeply ingrained fallibility Christians do what they hate either because they consciously deliberately and sinfully transgress Jesus commands or because they are experiencing unintended and often unconscious symptoms of mental ailments The interconnectedness of sinful and psychologically disordered behaviors is undeniable Malignant selfishness which we recognize as sin is often linked to narcissistic character features Repeated belligerent acting out may be rooted in a paranoid mindset Emotional cruelty may be not freely chosen but tied to antisocial personality traits sinning against the sixth commandment can be driven by the illness of pedophilia The reverse is also true most mentally disordered behaviors involve some form of intentional and sinful violation of Jesus command Though the boundary between sin and sickness may appear fuzzy at times a thorough understanding of their interplay is of utmost importance when faced with matters of freedom of choice conscience responsibility and most of all pastoral care This comprehensive handbook on pastoral care successfully integrates the biblical and medical scientific perspectives on human anthropology mental illness and sin It expounds on the signs of all major mental ailments and provides recommendations for their pastoral and medical treatment Problems from psychoses to mood disorders suicide to sexual disturbances anxiety to addictive behaviors and ailments in between are explained Readers will find new insights on the ways in which various personality disorders interfere with spiritual functioning Developmental stages in life are also discussed together with the spiritual challenges they pose and the pastoral answers they call for This work does not shy away from controversial topics such as post abortion syndrome euthanasia gender ideology or the psychological aspects of atheism Soundly faith based yet well grounded in contemporary psychiatric knowledge this handbook captures a lifetime of learning and healing by practicing psychologist who holds an MD PhD and a graduate theology degree It is an indispensable practical reference for all pastoral workers

Psychiatry Board Review Dr. Rajesh Tampi, Dr. Kristina Zdanys, Dr. Mark Oldham, 2017-03-29 The field of psychiatry is evolving rapidly specifically in the areas of classification of many psychiatric disorders psychopharmacology and psychotherapeutics The new Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM 5 which was introduced in 2013 forms the basis of the new classification system in psychiatry The American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology is also in the process of phasing in DSM 5 criteria to the board examination such that by 2017 the examination material will exclusively reflect the new manual As psychiatric trainees and psychiatrists prepare for their certification and recertification examinations using the new classification system a new board review textbook is imperative to address these changes in order to prepare them for the certification examinations as well as for their clinical practice To help with this process we have compiled a list of 1000 questions and answers in psychiatry and neurology using the most current information available in the field and using the DSM 5 classification system This book has been specifically written for the busy professional who does not have the time to access numerous resources necessary to prepare for professional examinations
