At Home In Diaspora South Asian Scholars And The West:

At Home in Diaspora Jackie Assayag, Veronique Benei, 2003-10-31 During the past two decades at the same time that the South Asian presence in the U S and Europe has become an increasingly visible part of mainstream social life and popular culture scholars of South Asian descent have come to occupy many prominent positions within the Western academy contributing to the development of disciplines across the social sciences and humanities In this collection of highly personal essays leading figures in anthropology history and cultural and literary studies reflect on the complex interplay between individual and collective trajectories examining their own experiences as students scholars and teachers Their narratives trace the arc of interactions between East and West from the late colonial period through Indian Independence the Cold War the radicalism of the 1960s and the development of subaltern and postcolonial studies to the current conjuncture Throughout these writers explore the past and future significance of area studies as a paradigm for education and scholarship Contributors are Shahid Amin Arjun Appadurai Urvashi Butalia Dipesh Chakrabarty Partha Chatterjee Vasudha Dalmia Prasenjit Duara Ramachandra Guha Akhil Gupta Sudipta Kaviraj Purnima Mankekar Gyan Prakash and Sanjay Subrahmanyam Territorial Terrors Gerhard Stilz, 2007 Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat, 2018-03-14 This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku implying in between space and homing in diaspora women's narratives associated with the South Asian region The idea of in between space has been used differently in various cultures but gesture prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds Historically imperialism and the indentured grimit system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British Of course this was not the only cause of international migratory processes The partition of India and Pakistan led to large scale migration There was Punjabi migration to Canada Several Indians particularly the Gujaratis travelled to Africa for business reasons South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system Again these were not the only reasons The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push pull factors The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives They belonged to various ethnicities and races inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society Complete cultural assimilation was not possible creating layered and hyphenated identities These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross pollination of cultures inter racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture language music fashion cuisine and so on Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly Nostalgia loss of home culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies New Cosmopolitanisms Gita Rajan, 2006-02-09 This book offers an in depth look at the ways in which technology travel and globalization have altered traditional patterns of immigration for South Asians who live and work in the United States and explains how their popular cultural practices and aesthetic desires are fulfilled They are presented as the twenty first century s new cosmopolitans flexible enough to adjust to globalization s economic political and cultural imperatives They are thus uniquely adaptable to the mainstream cultures of the United States but also vulnerable in a period when nationalism and security have become tools to maintain traditional power relations in a changing world Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred, 2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2014-02-27 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans national expansion in the study of culture Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society Embodying the Vedas Borayin Larios,2017-04-10

Popularly Hinduism is believed to be the world's oldest living religion. This claim is based on a continuous reverence to the oldest strata of religious authority within the Hindu traditions: the Vedic corpus, which began to be composed more than three thousand years ago around 1750-1200 BCE. The Vedas have been considered by many as the philosophical cornerstone of the Brahmanical traditions, still even previous to the colonial construction of the concept of Hinduism. However, what can be pieced together from the Vedic texts is very different from contemporary Hindu religious practices, beliefs, social norms, and political realities. This book presents the results of a study of the traditional education and training of Brahmins through the traditional system of education called gurukula as observed in 25 contemporary Vedic schools across the state of Maharashtra. This system of education aims to teach Brahmin males how to properly recite, memorize, and ultimately embody the Veda. This book combines insights from ethnographic and textual analysis to unravel how the recitation of the Vedic texts and the Vedic traditions, as well as the identity of the traditional Brahmin in general, are transmitted from one generation to the next in contemporary India.

Diasporas Professor Kim Knott, Doctor Sean McLoughlin, 2013-04-04. Featuring essays by world-renowned scholars, Diasporas charts the various ways in which global population movements and associated social, political, and cultural issues have been seen through the lens of diaspora. Wide-ranging and interdisciplinary, this collection considers critical concepts shaping the field, such as migration, ethnicity, post-colonialism, and cosmopolitanism. It also examines key intersecting agendas and themes, including political economy, security, race, gender, and material and electronic culture. Original case studies of contemporary as well as classical diasporas are featured, mapping new directions in research and testing the usefulness of diaspora for analyzing the complexity of transnational lives today. Diasporas is an essential text for anyone studying, working, or interested in this increasingly vital subject.

Whatever Happened to Class? Rina Agarwala, Ronald J. Herring, 2018-10-24. Class explains much in the differentiation of life chances and political dynamics in South Asia. Scholarship from the region contributed much to class analysis. Yet class has lost its previous centrality as a way of understanding the world and how it changes. This outcome is puzzling. New configurations of global economic forces and policy have widened gaps between classes, and across sectors and regions, altered people's relations to production and produced new state-citizen relations. Does market triumphalism or increased salience of identity politics render class irrelevant? Has rapid growth in aggregate wealth obviated long-standing questions of inequality and poverty? Explanations for what happened to class vary from intellectual fads to global transformations of interests. The authors ask what is lost in the move away from class and what South Asian experiences tell us about the limits of class analysis. Empirical chapters examine formal and informal sector labor, social movements, genetic engineering, and politics of the new middle class. A unifying analytical concern is specifying conditions under which interests of those disadvantaged by class systems are immobilized, diffused, co-opted, or autonomously recognized and acted upon politically. The problematic transition of classes in themselves to classes for themselves
