excerpts from Edward St Aubyn Keith Donohue Euny Hong Richard House Fred Venturini and many more Connecting Literature and Science Jay A. Labinger, 2021-11-18 This book presents a case for engagement between the sciences and the humanities The author a professional chemist seeks to demonstrate that the connections between those fields of intellectual activity are far more significant than anything that separates them The book combines a historical survey of the relationships between science and literature with a number of case studies that examine specific scientific episodes several drawn from the author's own research juxtaposed with a variety of literary works spanning a wide range of period and genre Dante to detective fiction War and Peace to White Teeth to elicit their common themes The work argues for an empirical non theory based approach one that is closely analogous to connectionist models of brain development and function and that can appeal to general readers as well as to literary scholars and practicing scientists who are open to the idea that literature and science should not be compartmentalized Writing for Stage and Screen Sherry Kramer, 2023-06-15 Reading and digesting the lessons in this book can be of greater value to an aspiring dramatist than years in an MFA program Whether you are writing for the stage screen or audio this book is an invaluable teacher and guide to have by your side throughout the development and revision process Frances Ya Chu Cowhig This book does what no other playwriting book in my experience has done it offers a new way of seeing and conceiving how theatre makes meaning and carries emotional impact in performance Suzan Zeder Professor Emerita and former Head Of Playwriting at University of Texas at Austin USA Combining a step by step analysis of the technique of writing for stage and screen with how the mystery poetry and emotional momentum is achieved for the audience Sherry Kramer offers an empowering original guide for emerging and established writers In this structured look at the way audience members progress through a work in real time Sherry Kramer uses plain spoken vocabulary to help you discover how to make work that will mean more to your audiences By using examples drawn from plays film and streaming series ranging from A Streetcar Named Desire to Fleabag to Pirates of the Caribbean this study makes its concepts accessible to a wide range of artists who work in timebound art The book also features multiple exercises developed with MFA writers in The Iowa Playwrights Workshop and The Michener Center for Writers where Kramer taught for the past 25 years which provide entrance points to help you consider and create your work The Cambridge Companion to Chomsky James McGilvray, 2017-04-13 This second edition discusses advances in Chomsky's science of language his view of the human mind and its study and his socioeconomic political contributions The Patrick Melrose Novels Edward St. Aubyn, 2012-01-31 NATIONAL BESTSELLER An Atlantic Magazine Best Book of the Year A Publishers Weekly Best Book of the Year The Melrose Novels are a masterwork for the twenty first century written by one of the great prose stylists in England Alice Sebold author of The Lovely Bones Soon to be a Showtime TV series starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Blythe Danner For more than twenty years acclaimed author Edward St Aubyn has chronicled the life of Patrick Melrose painting an extraordinary portrait of the beleaguered and self loathing world of privilege This single volume collects the first four novels Never Mind Bad News Some Hope and Mother's Milk a Man Booker finalist to coincide with the publication of At Last the final installment of this unique novel cycle By turns harrowing and hilarious these beautifully written novels dissect the English upper class as we follow Patrick Melrose's story from child abuse to heroin addiction and recovery Never Mind the first novel unfolds over a day and an evening at the family's chateaux in the south of France where the sadistic and terrifying figure of David Melrose dominates the lives of his five year old son Patrick and his rich and unhappy American mother Eleanor From abuse to addiction the second novel Bad News opens as the twenty two year old Patrick sets off to collect his father's ashes from New York where he will spend a drug crazed twenty four hours And back in England the third novel Some Hope offers a sober and clean Patrick the possibility of recovery The fourth novel the Booker shortlisted Mother's Milk returns to the family chateau where Patrick now married and a father himself struggles with child rearing adultery his mother's desire for assisted suicide and the loss of the family home to a New Age foundation Edward St Aubyn offers a window into a world of utter decadence amorality greed snobbery and cruelty welcome to the declining British aristocracy

Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick, 2018-09-07 How do poems and novels create a sense of mind What does literary criticism say in conversation with other disciplines that addresses problems of consciousness In Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick takes up these vital questions exploring the relations between mind and environment the literary forms that uncover such associations and the various fields of study that work to illuminate them Opening with a discussion of how literary scholarship's particular methods can both complement and remain in tension with corresponding methods particular to the sciences Paper Minds then turns to a series of sharply defined case studies Ranging from eighteenth century poetry and haptic theories of vision to fiction and contemporary problems of consciousness to landscapes in which all matter is sentient to cognitive science and the rise of the novel Kramnick's essays are united by a central thematic authority This unified approach of these essays shows us what distinctive knowledge that literary texts and literary criticism can contribute to discussions of perceptual consciousness created and natural environments and skilled engagements with the world
