different from other teenage boys his age with his interest in women's clothing, nail polish and male crushes. He acknowledges that he feels like a woman inside but he is conflicted over whether these feelings are acceptable because he is the son of a pastor. On Daniel's eighteenth birthday, after years of sorrow, he embraces his identity and tells his family. To no surprise, he receives intense backlash. From death threats, public teasing, family neglect and even a family member committing suicide, Daniel reads the suicide note and it seems to encourage Daniel to act out certain Bible scriptures. Reading the Bible passages sparks a fire in Daniel to turn his back on his identity and display ways of violence and hatred onto other LGBTQIA members as a calling from God. Unaware how this will come back to haunt him.

Groupon's Biggest Deal Ever Frank Sennett, 2012-06-05 The inside story of the meteoric rise of Groupon from startup to 30 billion online giant and the audacious genius behind it, founder Andrew Mason. In late 2010, Groupon made an incredible gamble. Rather than take Google's 6 billion buyout offer, founder Andrew Mason turned the search giant down and decided to go it alone. The experts thought he was insane. Groupon was little more than two years old and staffed from top to bottom with twenty somethings. The wild ride couldn't last, but Mason thought otherwise and, with knowledge of a possible IPO, he liked his odds. A discount service that offers a deal a day at local merchants in countless cities in more than forty-three countries, Groupon is the fastest growing company in Internet history and is as committed to innovating a new model for commerce as it is to creating an office culture and editorial voice based on radical transparency and absurd humor. Groupon's Biggest Deal Ever is the exclusive and unparalleled account of the incredible rise of discount giant Groupon and the compelling story of its offbeat founder Andrew Mason as he created a juggernaut of online commerce and ignited a consumer revolution.
