Art Encounters Deleuze and Guattari S. O'Sullivan, 2005-12-16 In a series of philosophical discussions and artistic case studies this volume develops a materialist and immanent approach to modern and contemporary art The argument is made for a return to aesthetics an aesthetics of affect and for the theorization of art as an expanded and complex practice Staging a series of encounters between specific Deleuzian concepts the virtual the minor the fold etc and the work of artists that position their work outside of the gallery or outside of representation Simon O Sullivan takes Deleuze s thought into other milieus allowing these possible worlds to work back on philosophy

Ethics, Aesthetics, and the Beyond of Language Robert Hughes, 2010-08-02 This book explores the relationship between literature and ethics showing how literature and art work to open up a part of ethics that resists traditional philosophy Focusing on three American Romantic texts Wieland The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and The Marble Faun Robert Hughes demonstrates how each dramatizes the ethical psychological and existential imperative to put the experience of our own traumatic limits death mortality and being into poetic language To develop the theoretical stakes of these literary readings Hughes also draws on four twentieth century continental thinkers Jacques Lacan Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas and Alain Badiou each of whom in his own way proposed aesthetics or art as an approach to this dimension of ethics The book also points to an overlooked common lineage descending from German Romanticism between

American Romanticism and contemporary post Romantic continental thought a shared supposition about the limits of reason as a mode of presenting the essence of art and ethics and a shared faith in the promise of literature to speak to or open up this subjective space of foundational ethics Culture, Heritage and Representation Steve Watson,2016-12-05 The visual has long played a crucial role in forming experiences associations expectations and understandings of heritage Images convey meaning within a range of practices including tourism identity construction the popularization of the past through a variety of media and the memorialization of events However despite the central role of the visual in these contexts it has been largely neglected in heritage literature This edited collection is the first to explore the production use and consumption of visual imagery as an integral part of heritage Drawing on case studies from around the world it provides a multidisciplinary analysis of heritage representations combining complex understandings of the visual from a wide range of disciplines including heritage studies sociology and cultural studies perspectives In doing so the book provides a comprehensive overview of the theoretical and methodological tools necessary for understanding visual imagery within its cultural context Time to Play Katarzyna Zimna,2014-12-09 Play art or interactive art is becoming a central concept in the contemporary art world disrupting the traditional role of passive observance usually assumed by audiences allowing them active participation The work of play artists from Carsten Holler s Test Site at the Tate Modern to Gabriel Orozco s Ping Pond Table must be touched influenced and experienced the gallery goer is no longer a spectator but a co creator Time to Play explores the role of play as a central but neglected concept in aesthetics and a model for ground breaking modern and postmodern experiments that have intended to blur the boundary between art and life Moving freely between disciplines Katarzyna Zimna links the theory and history of 20th and 21st century art with ideas developed within play game and leisure studies and the philosophical theories of Kant Gadamer and Derrida to critically engage with current discussion on the role of the artist viewers curators and their spaces of encounter She combines a consideration of the philosophical implications of play with the examination of how it is actually used in modern and postmodern art looking at Dada Surrealism Fluxus and Relational Aesthetics Focusing mainly on process based art this bold book proposes a fresh approach reaching beyond classical cultural theories of play Expanded Painting Mark Titmarsh,2017-08-24 The relevance of painting has been questioned many times over the last century by the arrival of photography installation art and digital technologies But rather than accept the death of painting Mark Titmarsh traces a paradoxical interface between this art form and its opposing forces to define a new practice known as expanded painting giving the term historical context theoretical structure and an important place in contemporary practice As the formal boundaries tumble the being of painting expands to become a kind of total art incorporating all other media including sculpture video and performance Painting is considered from three different perspectives ethnology art theory and ontology From an ethnological point of view painting is one of any number of activities that takes place within a culture In art theory terms painting is understood to produce objects of interest for humanities disciplines Yet painting as a medium often challenges both its object and image status expanding and creating hybrid works between painting objects screen media and text Ontologically painting is understood as an object of aesthetic discourse that in turn reflects historical states of being Thus Expanded Painting delivers a new kind of saying a post aesthetic discourse that is attuned to an uncanny tension between the presence and absence of painting

A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson, Maria Elena Buszek, 2019-10-22 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate
