Arthur Brown Jr Progressive Classicist Classical America Series In Art And Architecture:

Arthur Brown, Jr Jeffrey T. Tilman, Arthur Brown, 2006 Arthur Brown Jr 1874 1957 is one of the most important yet underpublished architects of the twentieth century The Secrets of Architectural Composition Nathaniel Cortland Curtis, 2013-09-02 Well arranged logical and aptly illustrated this classic survey covers every aspect of the design process It addresses architectural principles as well as their practical application examining general questions of scale balance proportion and symmetry and presenting detailed treatments of doors windows walls stairways columns and other features Long acknowledged as a valuable resource for students and teachers alike this volume is unsurpassed in terms of the richness of its material and the consistency of its insights It was written by Nathaniel Cortlandt Curtis an influential designer and artist who served as the head of the Tulane School of Architecture Curtis illustrated his work with nearly 250 line drawings that depict architectural elements from a splendid variety of periods and settings from ancient Rome s temples and palaces to modern day hotels and museums of Paris and New York CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, THE EARLY YEARS (1903-1913) Alissandra Dramov, 2013 Carmel by the Sea The Early Years 1903 1913 describes the establishment of Carmel by the Sea California along with an overview of the history of the Carmel Mission and the Monterey Peninsula The book s emphasis is on the development of Carmel as a Bohemian artists and writers colony at the start of the 20th century The town s first decade of existence is described the businesses and services offered and the residential architecture There are biographies of the well known Bohemian artists writers poets builders and other notable residents and visitors in the early 1900 s This original group of settlers the majority of whom came from Northern California s Bay Area were distinctive individuals who were drawn to the coastal village by its scenic beauty and the inspiration it provided for their intellectual pursuits They set the tone that made Carmel by the Sea a Bohemian enclave on the West Coast and distinguished it as a unique place These early residents and visitors left a significant and lasting impact on the future of the seaside town which in turn attracted other creative talents to the area through the years and still to this day Carmel by the Sea The Early Years 1903 1913 preserves the literary artistic cultural and architectural heritage of Carmel and the Monterey Peninsula region

The Vatican and Saint Peter's Basilica of Rome Paul Letarouilly, 2010 French architect Paul Letarouilly 1795 1855 author of the masterpiece Edifices de Rome Moderne was unequalled in his observational ability and impeccable drawing skills He devoted many years of his life living in austerity and refusing paying commissions to compile and draw the intricate details and decorative elements of the most breathtaking buildings in Italy s Vatican City including St Peter s Basilica the Sistine Chapel the Pontifical Palace the Museo Pio Clementino and the Villa Pia Published in 1882 after his death Vatican served as an unparalleled sourcebook of everything from plans elevations interior room views and perspective drawings to mosaics wall panels door frames fountains towers domes cornices and moldings Prior to the book s original publication these details were not easily replicated in other parts of the world Vatican gave access to rigorous documentation of the work of some of the most significant Renaissance architects Michelangelo Bernini Bramante Sangallo and Peruzzi and is now often credited as one of the primary catalysts for the American Renaissance style the results of which can be seen in any capital city in America The precision and attention to detail that Letarouilly demanded of his engravers advanced the art of etching in the nineteenth century Exquisite rendering techniques and precise execution make this book as beautiful as it is useful Originally published in three volumes Vatican is presented as a single facsimile edition in our Classic Reprints series and includes a new foreword by architectural historian Ingrid Rowland Published in association with the Institute of Classical Architecture and Classical America Secrets of Good Design for Artists, Artisans and Crafters Burl N. Osburn,2013-12-10 Practical and aesthetically pleasing this visual meditation on the constituents of good design considers all manner of construction form and ornamentation It answers many questions about design choices from basic to specific with clear concise and practical directions The book s appeal lies chiefly in the integrity of its own design consisting of hand lettered text and pleasingly styled and proportioned illustrations Author Burl N Osburn addresses basic questions What are the qualities of good design and how does balance affect design What is good proportion and how is ornament used and explores design choices in a variety of expressions Featured arts and crafts include the use of wrought iron methods of cutting wood the decoration of clay and leather the basic textile structures the nature of the tapestry weave and design of block printed textile the development of repeat pattern and the geometry of repeating ornament and attaining typographic unity Students learn to analyze a project s requirements draw up specifications and design the final product A valuable guide for teachers and students this volume also constitutes a practical resource for professional and amateur artists and crafters Theory of Mouldings Charles Howard Walker,2007 Republication of a classic 1926 study that looks at mouldings from historical practical aesthetic and perceptual points of view With the revival of interest in traditional design practitioners students and historians have begun to study and use the vocabulary of forms that so enriched our architectural heritage None are as ubiquitous as mouldings yet an in depth analysis of them has been absent This book fills an important gap in the current discourse of building 92 illustrations Building Details Frank Miles Snyder,2008 DVD contains tiff files of images from book The Golden City Henry Hope Reed,2020-06-16 A controversial manifesto on the role of classical principles in architecture critically examined for relevance today First published in 1959 The Golden City is a seminal critical document that developed one of the earliest and most compelling arguments against the then dominant hegemony of modernism by reawakening interest in the value of our country s built patrimony particularly with respect to its notable classical architecture classical sculpture and ornament in the built environment The book s argument remains valuable today The Golden City can be credited with building the constituency for the preservation movement in the United States in general and in New York City in particular That constituency coalesced around Reed s powerful polemic eventually contributing to the formulation in 1965 of New York City s groundbreaking Landmark Law one of the most important milestones in the preservation movement in the United States Fences, Gates and Garden Houses Carl F. Schmidt, 2013-05-27 A treasure trove of measured drawings and photographs this volume depicts wood fences gates and small garden houses of New England Several of these elegantly detailed constructions were built between the Revolutionary War and 1825 and many of them no longer exist Restorationists and preservationists will find this collection a valuable resource Edwin Howland
