As 1684:

The Works of Aphra Behn: v. 1: Poetry Janet Todd, 2018-10-24 Aphra Behn 1640 1689 was one of the most successful dramatists of the Restoration theatre and a popular poet This is the first volume in a set of seven which comprises a complete edition of all her works This volume is a collection of her poetry Wisconsin Statutes. 1919 Wisconsin, 1919

Wisconsin Statutes Wisconsin, 1913 The New England Historical & Genealogical Register, 1858 The Diary of Thomas Minor, Stonington, Connecticut, 1653-1684 Thomas Minor, 1899 Historical Collections of the Essex Institute Essex Institute, 1862 Salvation in New England Phyllis M. Jones, Nicholas R. Jones, 2013-09-13 The sermon as crafted by the early New England preachers was the most prominent literary form of its day yet the earliest Puritan texts have as a rule been available only in rare book collections This anthology of sermons of the first generation of preachers fills a serious gap in American literature The preachers collected here the most widely published of their time were among the eighty or more who emigrated to Massachusetts Bay during the 1630s They are John Cotton of Boston Thomas Shepard of Cambridge and Thomas Hooker of Hartford the three foremost lights of the western churches and two eminent colleagues Peter Bulkeley of Concord and John Davenport first of New Haven and later of Boston The selections are chosen to be representative of the lengthy works from which they are drawn to reflect the major concerns and styles of the preachers work as a whole and to demonstrate the genre of the sermon as developed by the early American Puritans Not only does this anthology represent an important contribution to literary history but the sermons also illustrate a doctrine uniquely elaborated in this period a consistent and emphatic narrative mythlike in its repetition and heroics of the progress of the soul from a state of nature to a state of salvation This theme may be seen as a three stage development although individual sermons may vary These stages preparation vocation and regeneration determine the order of the selections The editors introductory material supplies a comprehensive and thorough discussion of the early New England sermons concentrating on their role history structure style and subject matter A separate essay on the texts of the sermons describes the relationship between the early printed versions and their form as delivered in the pulpit The introduction preceding each selection presents original research on the historical circumstances of the preaching and publication of the work from which the sermon is drawn The editors have also provided brief biographies of the preachers represented here an annotated list of recommended background reading and the most exhaustive checklist available of authoritative editions of the sermons of these five preachers This book will be useful to colonial specialists as well as to students of early American literature religion and history The texts are critically edited for readability with modernized spelling and annotations of unfamiliar phrases and allusions Records of English Court Music Andrew Ashbee, 2020-08-26 Pioneering work on the musical material from the archives of the English court was undertaken by Nagel 1894 Lafontaine 1909 and Stokes in the Musical Antiquary 1903 1913 Records of English Court Music a series of seven volumes covering the period 1485 1714 is the first attempt to compile a systematic calendar of such references It aims to revise these earlier studies where necessary adding significant details which researchers omitted clarifying the context of documents and substituting current call marks for defunct references Volume V is primarily concerned with the post Restoration years already partially covered in volumes I and II The material from the Exchequer and Declared Accounts of the Treasurer of the Chamber has been revised to include references to trumpeters and drummers Other sections are devoted to material outside the Lord Chamberlain s papers the Signet Office Docquet Books Secret Service accounts and more from the Exchequer the Corporation of Musick controlled by the Court musicians and to the range of music material from accounts of the Receivers General Samples from the comprehensive records of the Lord Steward s department including those of the Cofferer of the Household are also provided Andrew Ashbee was the winner of the Oldman Prize in 1987 for Volume II in the series of Records of English Court Music awarded by the UK branch of the International Association of Music Libraries for the year s best book on music librarianship bibliography and reference

Tudor and Stuart Proclamations 1485-1714: Scotland and Ireland James Ludovic Lindsay Earl of Crawford,1910 A Treatise on the Practice of the High Court of Chancery, with Some Practical Observations on the Pleadings in that Court Edmund Robert DANIELL,1867
