Saint Paul as Spiritual Director Victor A. Copan, 2008-02-01 In recent years much has been written on spiritual direction. However, confusion and at times outright contradiction exist between the aims and methodologies of various models of Christian spiritual direction. In order to develop solid criteria for evaluating and critiquing these models, it is necessary to root the practice of spiritual direction in the biblical record. The intention of this study is to provide such biblical moorings by examining the Apostle Paul as a case study in his function as a spiritual director with respect to his aims and praxis of spiritually forming the members of the congregations he founded. Mentoring Companionship Freddy Lay, 2021-03-22 Rooted in a wide range of examples of companion mentoring in scripture, Mentoring Companionship by author Freddy Lay develops a compelling vision for how close companionship can strengthen mentoring relationships in ways that provide mutual encouragement and support. It gives a foundation for developing a mentoring companionship framework not just for church but also for other spheres of life. The message focuses on companion mentoring in which paired individuals or groups support each other in their ministry roles. Primarily directed at church leaders, Mentoring Companionship encourages them away from depictions of themselves as powerful solo figures toward a more cooperative and supportive model of ministry oriented around the greater goal of faithfulness to Christ. Throughout twelve chapters, Lay's biblically focused study highlights the importance of ensuring church leaders engage in companionship mentoring to benefit from mutual support and accountability and to counter the loneliness and isolation so many leaders in ministry often experience. Based on his many years of experience in ministry leadership in Indonesia, Lay provides a wealth of suggestions and personal experiences to underlie his analysis of the importance of companion mentoring. Mentoring Matters Rick Lewis, 2012-09-12 Mentoring Matters explains a reproducible model for maximizing the potential of leaders and helping them go the distance. It gets behind the issues of leadership skills to address the leader as a person: their spirituality, emotional health, key relationships, vulnerabilities, and rhythms of life. This approach to mentoring is highly flexible so that it can be tailor-made for each mentoring partnership, not relying on a strict format or curriculum. The mentor functions as a doctor of the soul, pulling us back to our most noble intentions and perceptive insights. The approach is formal and organised and highly effective.
