The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginity austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose s entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose s case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose s canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose s competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic s wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism

Chilton's Iron Age ,1981 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2002 Legitimizing the Queen Cristina Guardiola-Griffiths,2011 Legitimizing the Queen deals with a genre particular to the Middle Ages the specula principum mirror of prince Its importance as an object of study may be understood in light of the political instability that wracked the Castilian fifteenth century The many works written for and dedicated to Isabel I of Castile depict her kingdom as a shipwrecked boat a wayward realm and a land of bankrupt people These works suggest the kingdom s need for redemption through the strong leadership of the Catholic monarchs These largely propagandistic works were designed to garner power and once maintained further Isabel s agenda This book frames the concept of sovereignty from the theoretical perspective of the speculum principum dedicated to her It offers a Bourdieuan approach to the more literary specula texts used to legitimize and uphold Isabel s power This book reveals propagandistic qualities promoting the ideology necessary to legitimize and support Isabel s claims to the throne Written primarily between 1468 and 1493 these works are literary artifacts that mark the rise to power of a female sovereign The study discusses the various strategies of legitimation employed by these propagandists whose works circulated within noble and royal courts and presumably extended into Castile as justification for her sovereign claim to the throne By analyzing fifteenth century texts from within a modern critical framework this book reexamines Isabel s position as queen and contributes to the understanding of her shared sovereignty in a period political and social evolution
