The WVatch Control Centre

Unlike in previous versions of watchOS, in watchOS 10, you access the Control Centre by pressing the Side Button. Older versions of the OS opened it by swiping up from the foot of the screen, which now gives you widgets.

WI-FI and Cellular

This icon, when lit, shows your watch has a current Wi-Fi connection. Tap it to turn Wi-Fi on and off. If your watch also has cellular connectivity, it's joined by another icon, showing a cellular mast. This is green when a cellular connection has been made. Again, tap it to turn it on and off.

Battery Level

This shows your current battery level. Tap it for a screen with a slider that lets you put your watch into Power Reserve mode, which shuts down most of your watch's functions but lets you keep the time.

Theatre Mode

Stops the display turning on when you lift your wrist; it still lights up if you tap the crystal or press a button. Theatre Mode also turns on Silent Mode. When the watch is in Theatre Mode, this icon appears above the watch face too. The icon is orange when it's on; tap it again to turn it off.

IPhone and Location

The green icon here shows your watch is connected to your Phone. The blue one shows it's seeking location information. Tap here to check up on this information. On an Apple Watch with Cellular connectivity, these icons are replaced with signal-strength bars. Swipe down from the faint line above these icons to close Control Centre.

@ D »

Ping Your IPhone

If you've mislaid your iPhone, tap this icon and it makes a pinging moise. Follow your ears, and you should be able to find it again. In iOS 17, you can also ping your Apple Watch from the iPhone's Control Centre, if you add the Ping My Watch button in Settings > Control Centre.

Silient Mode

If you need some peace and quiet, perhaps because you're in a meeting or watching a movie and don't want to be interrupted, tap this icon to activate Silent Mode. It turns red and the bell is crossed out when it's active. Tap it again to turn off Silent Mode.

Walkle-Talkle

Do you want to make yourself available for Walkie-Talkie calls? If so, tap this icon, it turns yellow. Tap it again to turn it off.
