Apple Pamela Dell and Sara Gilbert, 2025-08-10 Think Different In 1997 Apple was on the brink of bankruptcy So Steve Jobs approved the unique Think Different ad campaign to refresh Apple's image A long list of exceptional people such as physicist Albert Einstein and civil rights protester Rosa Parks appeared in ads accompanied by only the Apple logo and the words Think different The ads appeared in magazines and on billboards and buses On TV the commercial included spoken words in part Here's to the crazy ones The rebels The troublemakers The ones who think differently The people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world are the ones who do Superstar Company Apple Inc will forever be known as the superstar company whose ideas and products permanently changed the way people interact with technology The brand has grabbed public imagination as no other tech company has Historically it has shaped and reshaped the entire landscape of computing being almost singlehandedly responsible for the personal computer revolution Apple Seeds Just as a fruitful apple tree sprouts from a tiny seed so Apple Inc grew from a seedling idea that sprouted in the fertile soil of two young minds It was the summer of 1971 in Cupertino California A mutual friend introduced 21 year old Steve Wozniak to 16 year old Steve Jobs

Culture as Weapon Nato Thompson, 2017-01-17 One of the country's leading activist curators explores how corporations and governments have used art and culture to mystify and manipulate us The production of culture was once the domain of artists but beginning in the early 1900s the emerging fields of public relations advertising and marketing transformed the way the powerful communicate with the rest of us A century later the tools are more sophisticated than ever the onslaught more relentless In Culture as Weapon acclaimed curator and critic Nato Thompson reveals how institutions use art and culture to ensure profits and constrain dissent and shows us that there are alternatives An eye opening account of the way advertising media and politics work today Culture as Weapon offers a radically new way of looking at our world

Macworld, 2003

Steve Jobs' Life by Design George Beahm, 2014-05-13 On June 12 2005 Steve Jobs gave his first and only commencement address to the 114th graduating class at Stanford University an audience of approximately 23 000 They witnessed history Jobs' 22 minute prepared speech subsequently reached 26 million online viewers worldwide It is by far the most popular commencement address in history framed with three stories that succinctly summed up the most important lessons Jobs learned in life Life changing lessons he explained can only be connected when looking back which he had done in preparation for his talk Steve Jobs' Life by Design starts with Jobs' own words in the text of his talk and expands outward from there In the address Jobs gave us the dots but he didn't have the luxury of time to connect them So much about his life his viewpoint and his personal and business philosophies were mentioned but not explained We know what he said but what actually did he mean What can we learn from him This book connects those dots We see Jobs life and career through his own eyes in context and in proper perspective His process of looking back illuminated his life and by doing so he serves as an inspiration to illuminate our lives as well

Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century D.J. Huppertz, 2025-04-03 Covering 2001 to today Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century presents readers with a critical cross disciplinary perspective on retail design bringing together scholarship from design architecture branding cultural studies and social studies Our retail experience has changed profoundly over the past two decades largely due to the impact of digital technologies While the rise of smartphones and online commerce threatened to displace bricks and mortar stores physical shopping has survived and in some cases thrived Today the most successful brands design experiences that engage customers both within the physical store and in the digital realm In this book D J Huppertz analyses how corporations design these experiences how we interact with them and how they align with broader social cultural and economic changes Eight case studies reveal how some of the largest global retail chains including Apple Amazon Nike Zara IKEA and LEGO and smaller chains such as Aesop and Gentle Monster utilize design to create engaging experiences Unlike in the past such corporations consider design in a continuum that extends from architecture and interiors to product and service design and from website and digital interactions to social media At the intersection of design and cultural studies this book provides a critical survey and understanding of design and retail experience in the 21st century
