Around The World In Six Years:

Around-the-World Flights Patrick M. Stinson, 2011-08-12 Since Wilbur and Orville Wright's first machine powered flight, adventurers have pondered the prospect of flying around the world. Though in the early 20th century the idea seemed as plausible as traveling to Mars, aviators made their first attempts in the wake of World War I and have never looked back. This history of around the world flights explores the endeavor starting with the first tentative journeys that allowed changing aircraft en route due to expected breakdowns. Once flying machines demonstrated reliable performance over global distances, a period of one-upmanship emerged with each new venture striving to outdo the previous one. Today even with international air travel having become routine, aviators strive to set records now using unconventional aircraft and fuel sources. Paying tribute to the supporting personnel as well as to the flight captains at the center of attention, this work celebrates aviation's continued spirit of adventure.

Raising Boys in the 21st Century Steve Biddulph, 2018-05-01 The most popular book ever about raising boys is back, significantly updated to help raise sons in a world that offers gender equality, respect, and a whole new kind of man, but is still haunted by toxic masculinity. You'll find cutting-edge science about the physical, four, the emotional, eight, and how puberty can be turned into a positive time, along with hundreds of other practical tips for raising a son. No two boys are alike, and you have to get to know your own unique boy. The idea that if we understand them, we can help them is what has made this book so well-loved and trusted in over a million homes. As one of Australia's best-known psychologists for almost 30 years, Steve has introduced a generation of fathers into hands-on engagement with kids and helped thousands of mothers gain confidence in their ability to raise sons well. He has worked with schools in 17 countries, and 130,000 parents have heard his unforgettable live talks. Biddulph is electrifying. Telegraph. Biddulph is a spellbinder. 60 Minutes. Cycle
