Creative Presence Emily Merson, 2020-09-11 Historically artwork has played a powerful role in shaping settler colonial subjectivity and the political imagination of Westphalian sovereignty through the canonization of particular visual artworks aesthetic theories and art institutions methods of display Creative Presence contributes a transnational feminist intersectional analysis of visual and performance artwork by Indigenous contemporary artists who directly engage with colonialism and decolonization This book makes the case that decolonial aesthetics is a form of labour and knowledge production that calls attention to the foundational violence of settler colonialism in the formation of the world order of sovereign states Creative Presence analyzes how artists purposeful selection of materials media forms and place making in the exhibitions and performances of their work reveals the limits of conventional International Relations theories methods and debates on sovereignty and participates in Indigenous reclamations of lands and waterways in world politics Brian Jungen's sculpture series Prototypes for New Understanding and Rebecca Belmore's filmed performances Vigil and Fountain exhibit how colonial power has been imagined visualized and institutionalized historically and in contemporary settler visual culture These contemporary visual and performance artworks by Indigenous artists that name the political violence of settler colonial claims to exclusive territorial sovereignty introduce possibilities for decolonizing audiences sensibilities and political imagination of lands and waterways

Exploring Nostalgia: Sad, Bad, Mad and Sweet

,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Sad Bad Mad and Sweet considers nostalgia as a force that shapes culture the self and the state It describes ways in which the nostalgic impulse is co opted created questioned and championed from a diverse array of disciplinary perspectives Nostalgia as feeling is pivotal in the construction and contradiction of identity as tool it is vital in the morphing and moulding of history From post colonial to post Soviet to post national views of home and the past to the sculpting of story itself this volume asks questions about how we remember and what those memories might offer The chapters seek to warn and reassure to imagine and to restrain they all acknowledge the power of this bitter and sweet longing for something lost whether real or imagined and explore the ways in which nostalgia shapes the stories we tell about ourselves The volume is an important contribution to the ways in which this multifaceted much maligned sentiment is considered

Museum Branding Margot Wallace,2016-03-07 In today s busy world museums compete for visitors not only with other museums but also with a worthy selection of cultural institutions from performing arts to libraries Add to these magnets a slew of enticing leisure activities from theme parks to jogging trails Given a weekend afternoon with a little free time to spare a prospective visitor has a tempting selection of destinations to choose from Branding a museum helps it stand out from the crowd by giving it an image and personality with which visitors and supporters can identify increasing their emotional attachment and encouraging them to return In Museum Branding Wallace offers clear practical advice on how to brand a museum department by department step by step By highlighting case studies from museums of every type and size she emphasizes that brains not budget create a successful branding effort This new edition is heavily updated to reflect digital branding from start to finish and features three entirely new chapters Public Relations and Social MediaTheaters Conservation Labs and Visible Storage SpacesDatabases

Entrepreneurship in the Creative Industries Phillip McIntyre,Janet Fulton,Susan Kerrigan,Michael Meany,2023-03-03 This books provides a critical perspective on entrepreneurialism in the creative industries Split into three sections the book first asks the contextual question why at this point in time did we arrive at such a focus on entrepreneurship in the creative industries Examining the historical social cultural economic and political background the book places the creative industries and entrepreneurship firmly within a systemic approach to creativity and cultural production Given this emphasis on entrepreneurship in the creative system the second part of the book asks what do those who want to work in the creative industries need to do to pragmatically gain an income The practices skills business models and plans necessary to master in order to successfully run a business are explored in this section The final section contains detailed case studies that reveal the lives of those who found a way to successfully gain an income in the creative industries It highlights the practical knowledge they gathered how they negotiated their field of endeavour and the decisions they made in the real world Fundamentally the book answers three questions How and why did we get here Given that we are here at this point in time how do we go about being entrepreneurial And who has managed to do this in the creative industries and how did they do it Covering both theoretical debates in detail and practical case studies in key sub sectors of creative industries this truly integrative and far reaching volume will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners alike Anukta Mukherjee Ghosh - Art Exhibit, India
