Law and Art Oren Ben-Dor, 2012-03-29 In engaging with the full range of the arts contributors to this volume consider the relationship between law justice the ethical and the aesthetic Art continually informs the ethics of a legal theory concerned to address how theoretical abstractions and concrete oppressions overlook singularity and spontaneity Indeed the exercise of the legal role and the scholarly understanding of legal texts were classically defined as ars iuris an art of law which drew on the panoply of humanist disciplines from philology to fine art That tradition has fallen by the wayside particularly in the wake of modernism But approaching art in that way risks distorting the very inexpressibility to which art is attentive and responsive whilst remaining a custodian of its mystery The novelty and ambition of this book then is to elicit in very different ways styles and orientations the importance of the relationship between law and art What can law and art bring to one another and what can their relationship tell us about how truth relates to power The insights presented in this collection disturb and supplement conventional accounts of justice inaugurating new possibilities for addressing the origin of violence in our world

Atmosphere and Aesthetics Tonino Griffero, Marco Tedeschini, 2019-11-21 This book provides a presentation of the concept of atmosphere in the realm of aesthetics An atmosphere is meant to be an emotional space Such idea of atmosphere has been more and more subsumed by human and social sciences in the last twenty years thereby becoming a technical notion In many fields of the Humanities affective life has been reassessed as a proper tool to understand the human being and is now considered crucial In this context the link between atmospheres and aesthetics becomes decisive Nowadays aesthetics is no longer only a theory of art but has recovered its original vocation to be a general theory of perception conceived of as an ordinary experience of pre logical character In its four parts Atmospheric turn Senses and Spaces Subjects and Communities Aesthetics and Art Theory this volume discusses whether atmospheres could take the prominent and paradigmatic position previously held by art in order to make sense of such sensible experience of the world

The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2016-04-21 The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics Exceeding of Expectations Ecstasy Sublimity analyzes the common experiential ground for both aesthetics and ethics by considering experiential environment both nature and art the precedents to desire the notion of experience incorporating a break and the reverberations of surprise leading to the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics Jadranka Skorin Kapov discusses different philosophical positions on the relationship between nature and art in conversation with Kant Hegel Goethe Gadamer and Adorno She argues that Kantian sublimity can carry over from nature to art As part of the discussions of expectations and authenticity the author interprets Husserl's view on expectations Heidegger's view on death and authenticity Blanchot's view on death and Arendt's view on natality As for understanding the aesthetic experience as the paradigmatic experience Skorin Kapov is informed by Dewey's work on art as experience Gadamer's work on experience of art and Jauss's work on the aesthetics of reception and the horizon of expectations After our sensibility and representational capability are broken recuperation then leads to sublimity and the subsequent feelings of admiration and or responsibility allowing for the intertwining of aesthetics and ethics Additionally elements of Kantian morality Foucault s ethics and Kierkegaard s work on interactions between aesthetics and ethics together help to characterize the relation between aesthetics and ethics Since we often encounter surprise due to unexpectedness in comedy Skorin Kapov also interprets philosophical views on the comedy and laughter including Aristotle Kierkegaard Meredith and Bergson using the theatrical work of Dario Fo as an example The novel analysis in The Intertwining of Aesthetics and Ethics will be of particular interest to students and scholars working or teaching in aesthetics phenomenology art history cultural studies and ethics
