Imperfukt Heidi Patullo, 2016-07-16 When young author Heidi Patullo bought into the labels donned on her smart pretty talented and Miss Perfect and for several years her choices both academic and personal reflected a fierce dedication to this identity Superficially it worked And yet even as a young adult Patullo knew it was for show merely a veneer of perfection and excellence and certainly not her chosen identity A born pleaser she dismayed over disappointing those whom she felt counted on her being the woman they believed her to be And so she maintained the many acts downplaying and silencing her own personal need to become the truest version of herself Ultimately however when she found the courage to make the heart wrenching choice to split up her perfect young family she sent a message loudly and clearly that all was not as it appeared Or certainly not in her personal world But shed only just begun To act out And to grow up This middle aged mother and teacher would need several years to get it right Nevertheless she was determined to become the genuine and genuinely happy woman she longed to be Anyone and everyone could see she was imperfect She handed that to them Suzanne Jackson

Koerner, 2025-02-04 A study of the work of three monumental artists living during different historical periods providing a rich understanding of the role of images created in dangerous times From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela

H. Smith, 2022-09-30 How and why early modern European artisans began to record their knowledge In From Lived Experience to the Written Word Pamela H. Smith considers how and why beginning in 1400 CE European craftspeople began to write down their making practices Rather than simply passing along knowledge in the workshop these literate artisans chose to publish handbooks guides treatises tip sheets graphs and recipe books sparking early technical writing and laying the groundwork for how we think about scientific knowledge today Focusing on metalworking from 1400 1800 CE Smith looks at the nature of craft knowledge and skill studying present day and historical practices objects recipes and artisanal manuals From these sources she considers how we can reconstruct centuries of largely lost knowledge In doing so she aims not only to unearth the techniques material processes and embodied experience of the past but also to gain insight into the lifeworld of artisans and their understandings of matter Our Hidden Landscapes Lucianne Lavin,Elaine guide to Elizabethan ideas about the mind What is the mind How does it relate to the body and soul These questions were as perplexing for the Elizabethans as they are for us today although their answers were often startlingly different Shakespeare and his contemporaries believed the mind was governed by the humours and passions and was susceptible to the Devil s interference In this insightful and wide ranging account Helen Hackett explores the intricacies of Elizabethan ideas about the mind This was a period of turbulence and transition as persistent medieval theories competed with revived classical ideas and emerging scientific developments Drawing on a wealth of sources Hackett sheds new light on works by Shakespeare Marlowe Sidney and Spenser demonstrating how ideas about the mind shaped new literary and theatrical forms Looking at their conflicted attitudes to imagination dreams and melancholy Hackett examines how Elizabethans perceived the mind soul and self and how their ideas compare with our own The Pursuit of Pleasurable Work Trevor H. J. Marchand,2021-11-01

Against the backdrop of an alienating technologizing and ever accelerating world of material production this book tells an intimate story one about a community of woodworkers training at an historic institution in London s East End during the present renaissance of craftsmanship The animated and scholarly accounts of learning achievement and challenges reveal the deep human desire to create with our hands the persistent longing to find meaningful work and the struggle to realise dreams In its penetrating explorations of the nature of embodied skill the book champions greater appreciation for the dexterity ingenuity and intelligence that lie at the heart of craftwork Sam Francis Debra Burchett-Lere,Aneta

Zebala,2019 The next title in the respected Artist s Materials series offers groundbreaking analysis of Sam Francis s working methods and materials American artist Sam Francis 1923 1994 brought vivid color and emotional intensity to Abstract Expressionism He was described as the most sensuous and sensitive painter of his generation by former Guggenheim Museum director James Johnson Sweeney and curator Howard Fox called him one of the acknowledged masters of late modern art Francis s works whether intimate or monumental in scale make indelible impressions the intention of the artist was to make them felt as much as seen At the age of twenty Francis was hospitalized for spinal tuberculosis and spent three years virtually immobilized in a body cast For physical therapy he was given a set of watercolors and as he described it he painted his way back to life The exuberant color and expression in his paintings celebrated his survival his five decade career was an energetic visual and theoretical exploration that took him around the world Francis's idiosyncratic painting practices have long been the subject of speculation and debate among conservators and art historians Presented here for the first time in this volume are the results of an in depth scientific study of more than forty paintings from the late 1940s to early 1990s which reveal new discoveries about his creative process inventive techniques and specially formulated paints and binders The data provides a key to the complicated evolution of the artist's work and informs original art historical interpretations
