Marvelous Faith Raymond K. Shin, 2022-07-29 A Roman centurion asks Jesus to heal his dying servant Jesus agrees to help and begins making his way to the centurion's home but the centurion tells him not to bother making the trip He says that it would be enough for Jesus just to say the word for the servant to be healed The Bible then says that Jesus marveled at the centurion's faith How could Jesus whom Christians believe to be God incarnate who knows all things be amazed by anything a human does There must be something special about faith to cause Jesus to be amazed Christians are called to possess the same kind of faith as the centurion It may not seem possible but if we want it God helps us obtain and maintain the kind of faith that can amaze even God himself And once we have that amazing faith it will lead us to share joy hope and love with others around us

Faith and Media Hans Geybels, Sara Mels, Michel Walrave, 2009 In the past ideologies and religions had a real impact on the media In the current era of mass media and communication strategies perception takes priority over identity and new questions arise how to introduce faith and religion in a pluralising and detraditionalising world What possibilities are offered by the new media How can technical innovations be incorporated in church communication Following the conference Belief in the Media April 2007 this publication focuses on the gap between the language of faith and the language of the general media The different contributors analyse from within but also from outside a church context the historical changes and challenges the Catholic Church and other faiths and denominations face with regard to their social communication and media strategies However it is not only the relationship of religious institutions with the media that is at stake but also the way in which the media cover topics such as the Middle East Muslim immigrant populations in Europe and the World Youth Day Journalists have to find new ways to get a grip on these issues too The Pious Christian's Faith and Hope John
