

CREATING A CONSTITUTION OR BY-LAWS

On the following pages is a sample you may follow when writing the constitution of your organization. This document is intended to serve as a model. An official student organization may structure and govern itself in any way deemed appropriate, so long as it does not violate any criteria stated in the Student Affairs Handbook with regard to organization chartering and registration. For additional assistance, please contact the Student Union & Events Office.

Definitions

A constitution is comprised of the fundamental laws and principles that prescribe the nature, functions and limits of an organization. Essentially, the constitution provides a basic structure upon which an organization operates.

By-laws are secondary laws, which rule or govern the internal affairs of an organization. Basically by-laws are an expansion of the articles or sections of the constitution. They describe in detail the procedures and steps for an organization to follow in order to conduct business effectively and efficiently.

Areas to be Covered within a Constitution

PREAMBLE

An introductory statement is usually no longer than two or three sentences, stating the intent of the constitution.

ARTICLE I: NAME OF ORGANIZATION

The name of this organization shall be [full name of organization], hereinafter be referred to as [shortened name of organization as will appear throughout the constitution [optional]].

Comments: One of the privileges granted with University recognition/chartering, is the option to use the name of the University in the title/name of the organization. The name of
