Artistic Bedfellows Histories Theories And Conversations In Collaborative Art Practices:

Artistic Bedfellows Holly Crawford, 2008-09-17 Artistic Bedfellows is an international interdisciplinary collection of historical essays critical papers case studies interviews and comments from scholars and practitioners that shed new light on the growing field of collaborative art This collection examines the field of collaborative art broadly while asking specific questions with regard to the issues of interdisciplinary and cultural difference as well as the psychological and political complexity of collaboration The diversity of approach is needed in the current multimedia and cross disciplinarily world of art This reader is designed to stimulate thought and discussion for anyone interested in this growing field and practice

Artistic Collaboration Today Victor M. Cassidy, 2018-10-18 Most artists work alone but some find a creative partner and team up for their entire careers Artistic collaborators often testify that their work done jointly is better than what each person could create on his or her own They say this collaboration is like marriage in the way that both partners benefit from a commitment to shared goals excellent communication and trust Based on studio visits and in depth interviews this book reports on more than forty collaborating sculptors painters printmakers photographers architects and performers who have worked in tandem with other artists Artists and the Practice of Agriculture Silvia Bottinelli, 2023-07-31 Artists and the Practice of Agriculture maps out examples of artistic practices that engage with the aesthetics and politics of gathering food growing edible and medicinal plants and interacting with non human collaborators In the hands of contemporary artists farming and foraging become forms of visual and material language that convey personal and political meanings This book provides a critical analysis of artistic practices that model alternative food systems It presents rich academic insights as well as 16 conversations with practicing artists The volume addresses pressing issues such as the interconnectedness of human and other than human beings the weight of industrial agriculture the legacy of colonialism and the promise of place based and embodied pedagogies Through participatory projects the artists discussed here reflect on the links between past histories present challenges and future solutions for the food sovereignty of local and networked communities The book is an easy to navigate resource for readers interested in food studies visual and material cultures contemporary art ecocriticism and the environmental humanities Screen Ecologies Larissa Hjorth, Sarah Pink, Kristen Sharp, Linda Williams, 2016-05-13 How new media and visual artists provide alternative ways for understanding and visualizing the entanglements of media and the environment in the Asia Pacific Images of environmental disaster and degradation have become part of our everyday media diet This visual culture focusing on environmental deterioration represents a wider recognition of the political economic and cultural forces that are responsible for our ongoing environmental crisis And yet efforts to raise awareness about environmental issues through digital and visual media are riddled with irony because the resource extraction manufacturing transportation and waste associated with digital devices contribute to environmental damage and climate change Screen Ecologies examines the relationship of media art and climate change in the Asia Pacific region a key site of both environmental degradation and the production and consumption of climate aware screen art and media Screen Ecologies shows how new media and visual artists provide alternative ways for understanding the entanglements of media and the environment in the Asia Pacific It investigates such topics as artists exploration of alternative ways to represent the environment regional stories of media innovation and climate change the tensions between amateur and professional art the emergence of biennials triennials and new arts organizations the theme of water in regional art new models for networked collaboration and social media s move from private to public realms A generous selection of illustrations shows a range of artist s projects

Hélène Smith Claudie Massicotte, 2023-06-20 This book retraces the story of spiritual medium H l ne Smith a woman who came to inspire some of the greatest scientists and artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Bringing to light archival documents correspondences and publications on the medium author Claudie Massicotte illuminates Smith s important contributions to evolving definitions of the subject during a period viewed by many as one of disenchantment In retracing the medium s story she explores the role of gender and occultism in modern understandings of the embodied self and its relation to the spiritual

Thai Art David Teh, 2017-03-31 The interplay of the local and the global in contemporary Thai art as artists strive for international recognition and a new meaning of the national Since the 1990s Thai contemporary art has achieved international recognition circulating globally by way of biennials museums and commercial galleries Many Thai artists have shed identification with their nation but Thainess remains an interpretive crutch for understanding their work In this book the curator and critic David Teh examines the tension between the global and the local in Thai contemporary art Writing the first serious study of Thai art since 1992 and noting that art history and criticism have lagged behind the market in recognizing it he describes the competing claims to contemporaneity as staked in Thailand and on behalf of Thai art elsewhere He shows how the values of the global art world are exchanged with local ones how they do and don t correspond and how these discrepancies have been exploited How can we make sense of globally circulating art without forgoing the interpretive resources of the local national or regional context Teh examines the work of artists who straddle the local and the global becoming willing agents of assimilation yet resisting homogenization He describes the transition from an artistic subjectivity couched in terms of national community to a more qualified postnational one against the backdrop of the singular but waning sovereignty of the Thai monarchy and sustained political and economic turmoil Among the national currencies of Thai art that Teh identifies are an agricultural symbology a Siamese poetics of distance and itinerancy and Hindu Buddhist conceptions of charismatic power Each of these currencies has been converted to a legal tender in global art signifying sustainability utopia the conceptual and the relational but what is lost and what may be gained in such exchanges

Art Attacks Malvika Maheshwari, 2018-10-16 Since the end of the 1980s in India self styled representatives of a variety of ascriptive groups religious caste regional and linguistic have been routinely damaging artworks disrupting their exhibition and threatening and assaulting artists and their supporters Often these acts are claimed to be a protest against allegedly hurtful or offensive artworks wherein its regularity and brazenness has led to an intensifying sense of fear frustration and anger within the art world Art Attacks tells the story of this phenomenon and maps the concrete political transformations that have informed the dynamic unfolding of violent attacks on artists Based on extensive interactions with offence takers assailants and artists the author argues that these attacks are not simply anti democratic but are dependent in perverse ways on the very logics of democracy s functioning in India At the same time they have been contained at least until now by this very democratic system which has prevented the spiralling of attacks into an outright condition of art plunder Performance Art in the Second Public Sphere Katalin Cseh-Varga,Adam Czihak,2018-02-01

Performance Art in the Second Public Sphere is the first interdisciplinary analysis of performance art in East Central and Southeast Europe under socialist rule By investigating the specifics of event based art forms in these regions each chapter explores the particular critical roles that this work assumed under censorial circumstances The artistic networks of Yugoslavia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania East Germany and Czechoslovakia are discussed with a particular focus on the discourses that shaped artistic practice at the time drawing on the methods of Performance Studies and Media Studies as well as more familiar reference points from art history and area studies Artistic Approaches to Cultural Mapping Nancy Duxbury,W.F. Garrett-Petts,Alys Longley,2018-09-03 Making space for imagination can shift research and community planning from a reflective stance to a future forming orientation and practice Cultural mapping is an emerging discourse of collaborative community based inquiry and advocacy This book looks at artistic approaches to cultural mapping focusing on imaginative cartography It emphasizes the importance of creative process that engages with the felt sense of community experiences an element often missing from conventional mapping practices International artistic contributions in this book reveal the creative research practices and languages of artists a prerequisite to understanding the multi modal interface of cultural mapping The book examines how contemporary artistic approaches can challenge conventional asset mapping by animating and honouring the local giving voice and definition to the vernacular or recognizing the notion of place as inhabited by story and history It explores the processes of seeing and listening and the importance of the aesthetic as a key component of community self expression and self representation Innovative contributions in this book champion inclusion and experimentation expose unacknowledged power relations and catalyze identity formation through multiple modes of artistic representation and performance It will be a valuable resource for individuals involved with creative research methods performance and cultural mapping as well as social and urban planning André Breton in Exile Victoria

Clouston,2017-09-22 Following the journey of Andr Breton the leader of the Surrealist movement into exile during the Second World War the author of this book traces the trajectory of his thought and poetic output from 1941 1948 Through a close examination of the major and as yet little studied works written during these years she demonstrates how Breton s quest for a new myth for the postwar world led him to widen his enquiry into hermeticism myth and the occult This ground breaking study establishes Breton's profound intellectual debt to 19th century Romanticism its literature and thought revealing how it defined his understanding of hermeticism and the occult and examining the differences between the two It shows how having abandoned political action on leaving the Communist Party in 1935 Breton nonetheless held firmly to political thought moving in his quest for a better world via Hermes Trismegistus across the utopian ideas of Charles Fourier and the magical practices of the Hopi Indians The author finally reveals Breton's misreading of the situation in postwar Paris on his return in 1946 and his failure to communicate the span of his ideas for creating a better society while at the same time maintaining a close connection between art and life
