Best Practices in Catholic Church Ministry Performance Management Charles Zech, 2010-06-23 The Church is not a business but it does have a stewardship responsibility to ensure that all of its resources are used as effectively as possible to carry out God's work on earth In the case of human resource assets good stewardship involves assisting those engaged in ministry whether clerical or lay to achieve their greatest potential through the various components of performance management including performance assessment This unique collection brings together both scholars and practitioners who tackle the tricky questions related to the performance management of lay Church workers and clergy priests and deacons Performance management is multifaceted ranging from issues about hiring job descriptions performance criteria performance appraisal formation and firing procedures As a charitable organization the Church is subject to the same civil law employment regulations as companies in the private sector Contributors demonstrate that Canon Law and Church tradition supports the performance management of Church ministers including clergy This is a valuable resource for programs in church ministry pastoral administration and in the emerging field of church management

Best Practices of Catholic Pastoral and Finance Councils Charles Zech, Mary Gautier, Robert Miller, Mary Bendyna, 2010-04-13 Every Catholic parish has a pastoral council and a finance council but how many fulfill the mission they were set up to serve These councils are among the most important but least understood structures in the Catholic Church Mandated to exist their roles have become increasingly critical as parishes both large and small are stretching personnel and financial resources further and further each year Add in the need for internal financial controls and human resource management coupled with fewer and fewer parish priests and the importance of these councils goes way beyond simply filling seats with warm bodied volunteers The function of these councils is to provide consultation to the pastor and to promote greater participation of the entire parish in the life and mission of the Church But in reality these terms are vague and leave too much room for individual interpretation In an unprecedented research effort author Charles Zech explores the very function of these councils in an effort to lay the groundwork for best practices at every parish It systematically fills the void as both Church leaders and laity strive to better understand the structure and processes needed to improve their effectiveness Zech s common sense straightforward writing style unpacks the extensive data to cover critical issues such as Parish Leadership Education Formation Programs Communication with Parish and Parish Staff Council Guideline Manuals Internal Controls Long Term Planning Prayer and Faith Sharing A must read for every pastor staff member or committee volunteer

Best Practices of Catholic Pastoral and Finance Councils gives the guidance support and how to that every parish needs making it helpful for diocesan staff as well Use it to stay on track get back on track or simply realize a track exists for these highly
