Edward Albee, 2006-08-01 A bitter marriage unravels in Edward Albee's darkly humorous play winner of the Tony Award for Best Play Twelve times a week answered actress Uta Hagen when asked how often she'd like to play Martha in Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf In the same way audiences and critics alike could not get enough of Edward Albee's masterful play A dark comedy it portrays husband and wife George and Martha in a searing night of dangerous fun and games By the evening's end a stunning almost unbearable revelation provides a climax that has shocked audiences for years With its razor sharp dialogue and the stripping away of social pretense Newsweek rightly foresaw Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf as a brilliantly original work of art an excoriating theatrical experience surging with shocks of recognition and dramatic fire that will be igniting Broadway for some time to come Albee: Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Stephen J. Bottoms, 2000-09-21 This is the first detailed study of one of the most important plays in contemporary theater In this fascinating look at the modern stage Stephen Bottoms draws on original archival material and sources including an exclusive interview with Edward Albee The Introduction considers the text of the play itself part one provides a survey of the major productions from 1962 to 1999 including the film Part two examines shifting critical responses to the play and the third and final part offers a detailed examination of five different performances Albee: Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Bennett, 2018-07-11 Edward Albee's Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf shocked audiences and critics alike with its assault on decorum At base though the play is simply a love story an examination of a long wedded life filled with the hopes dreams disappointments and pain that accompany the passing of many years together While the ethos of the play is tragicomic it is the anachronistic melodramatic secret object the nonexistent son that upends the audience's sense of theatrical normalcy The mean and vulgar bile spewed among the characters hides these elements making it feel like something entirely new As Michael Y Bennett reveals the play is the same emperor just wearing new clothes In short it is straight out of the grand tradition of living room drama Ibsen Chekhov Glaspell Hellmann O'Neill Wilder Miller Williams and Albee Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? Edward Albee, 1983-03 George a disillusioned academic and Martha his caustic wife have just come home from a faculty party When a handsome young professor and his mousy wife stop by for a nightcap an innocent night of fun and games quickly turns dark and dangerous Long buried resentment and rage are unleashed as George and Martha turn their rapier sharp wits against each other using their guests as pawns in their verbal sparring By night's end the secrets of both couples are uncovered and the lies they cling to are exposed Considered by many to be Albee
