Patrick Johnson, 2003-08-13 A consideration of the performance of Blackness and race in general in relation to sexuality and critiques of authenticity Troubling Vision Nicole R. Fleetwood, 2011-01-30 Nicole R. Fleetwood explores how blackness is seen as a troubling presence in the field of vision and the black body is persistently seen as a problem She examines a wide range of materials from visual and media art documentary photography theatre performance and more Reframing Blackness and Black Solidarities through Anti-colonial and Decolonial Prisms George J. Sefa Dei, 2017-05-19 This book grounds particular struggles at the curious interface of skin body psyche hegemonies and politics Specifically it adds to current re theorizations of Blackness anti Blackness and Black solidarities through anti colonial and decolonial prisms The discussion challenges the reductionism of contemporary polity of Blackness in regards to capitalism globalization particularly when relegated to the colonial power and privileged experiences of settler The book does so by arguing that this practice perpetuates procedures of violence and social injustice upon Black and African peoples The book brings critical readings to Black racial identity representation and politics informed by pertinent questions What are the tools frameworks Black peoples in Euro American Canadian contexts can deploy to forge community and solidarity and to resist anti Black racism and other social oppressions What critical analytical tools can be developed to account for Black lived experiences agency and resistance What are the limits of the tools or frameworks for anti racist anti colonial work How do such critical tools or frameworks of Blackness and anti Blackness assist in anti racist and anti colonial practice The book provides new coordinates for collective and global mobilization by troubling the politics of decolonizing solidarity as pointing to new ways for forging critical friends and political workers The book concludes by offering some important lessons for teaching and learning about Blackness and anti Blackness confronting some contemporary issues of schooling and education in Euro American contexts and suggesting ways to foster dialogic and generative forums for such critical discussions Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie, 2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world Moving Blackness Lisa B.
