Aqa Geog 3 June 2012 Question Paper

Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee

Aqa Geog 3 June 2012 Question Paper:

2012 GCSE English results Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2013-06-11 The 2012 GCSE English results prompted significant controversy which ultimately resulted in an application for judicial review This report sets out the background to these events and identifies lessons to be learned The problems with GCSE English can be traced back to the 2007/09 development phase of the qualification in particular the turbulence which resulted from the shift away from a mostly linear to a modular system combined with a high proportion of controlled assessment and generous marking tolerances Exam board experts raised concerns at the time but these were not acted upon by the regulator the then interim Ofqual Further difficulties arose because of pressures from the school accountability system The problems experienced with GCSE English in 2012 highlighted serious weaknesses in the moderation of speaking and listening with consequences for grade awarding The current status of Ofqual as an independent regulator accountable to Parliament is the right one However the Coalition Government is bringing in wholesale changes to GCSEs and A levels to a tight timetable and at the same time Ofqual must have systems in place The Committee is also concerned that there is a rush towards separate exam systems for England Wales and Northern Ireland without careful reflection on what might be lost or consensus that this is the right thing to do

Bringing the English Curriculum to Life David Didau, 2024-04-12 Bringing the English Curriculum to Life builds on David Didau's groundbreaking book Making Meaning in English by showing how the principles of the original book can be applied in schools and classrooms Drawing together experiences of designing teaching supporting and assessing English across the schools within Ormiston Academies Trust OAT this book demonstrates what an ambitious coherently sequenced broad and balanced English curriculum with successful adaption for students with SEND can look like in practice Designed around the explicit teaching of the powerful conceptual knowledge students need to master the discipline the book offers a fully resourced English curriculum packed with teaching suggestions and examples of high quality practice Covering intent implementation and assessment and outlining in detail what is included in each module for KS3 and 4 the curriculum can be adopted in its entirety but is also flexible enough for departments to take modules and slot them into their own curriculum Providing an inspiring model for teaching English that enables all students to succeed this is an essential resource for all English teachers and school leaders responsible for curriculum development

Knowing History in Schools Arthur Chapman, 2021-01-07 The knowledge turn in curriculum studies has drawn attention to the central role that knowledge of the disciplines plays in education and to the need for new thinking about how we understand knowledge and knowledge building Knowing History in Schools explores these issues in the context of teaching and learning history through a dialogue between the eminent sociologist of curriculum Michael Young and leading figures in history education research and practice from a range of traditions and contexts With a focus on Young s powerful knowledge theorisation of the curriculum and on his more recent articulations of the powers of knowledge this dialogue explores the many complexities posed for history education by the challenge of building children s historical knowledge and understanding The book builds towards a clarification of how we can best conceptualise knowledge building in history education Crucially it aims to help history education students history teachers teacher educators and history curriculum designers navigate the challenges that knowledge building processes pose for learning history in schools Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
