

A sepia-toned photograph of a vintage open-top car driving on a dirt road in a desert landscape. The car is in the lower center, moving towards the viewer. The road is dark and textured, with a lighter-colored path branching off to the right. The background shows rolling desert hills under a hazy sky.

Building Nevada's Highways Jennifer E. Riddle, 2015 Roads are rarely given a second thought yet are indispensable to life Admittedly a book dedicated to roadways sounds a bit dry But behind every double diamond interchange every pork chop island and every type of asphalt is a fascinating history of the traveling public This book reveals the hidden history of building the Silver State's highways since 1917 The next time you take a road trip across Nevada on the Lincoln Highway US 50 or the Victory Highway US 40 or follow a rutted road to a once booming ghost town think of the ingenious and industrious men and women surveyors engineers chemists and yes even the teams of mules that built the roads we still travel today
