Fieldwork Is Not What It Used to Be James D. Faubion, George E. Marcus, 2011-10-15 Over the past two decades anthropologists have been challenged to rethink the nature of ethnographic research the meaning of fieldwork and the role of ethnographers Ethnographic fieldwork has cultural social and political ramifications that have been much discussed and acted upon but the training of ethnographers still follows a very traditional pattern this volume engages and takes its point of departure in the experiences of ethnographers in the making that encourage alternative models for professional training in fieldwork and its intellectual contexts The work done by contributors to Fieldwork Is Not What It Used to Be articulates at the strategic point of career making research features of this transformation in progress Setting aside traditional anxieties about ethnographic authority the authors revisit fieldwork with fresh initiative In search of better understandings of the contemporary research process itself they assess the current terms of the engagement of fieldworkers with their subjects address the constructive open ended forms by which the conclusions of fieldwork might take shape and offer an accurate and useful description of what it means to become and to be an anthropologist today "Sustainability & Resilience (Natural Hazards, Disasters And Calamities)" Prof. Patrick Kalasa Kalifungwa, 2025-08-14 A disaster is an event that causes serious harm to people buildings economies or the environment and the affected community cannot handle it alone www ifrc org 2017 Emergency Humanitarian Action 2002 Natural disasters like avalanches floods earthquakes and wildfires are caused by natural hazards hazards fema gov 2022 Human made disasters like oil spills terrorist attacks and power outages are caused by people Nowadays it is hard to separate natural and human made disasters because human actions can make natural disasters worse openDemocracy 2020 Gould Kevin A Garcia M Magdalena Remes Jacob A C 2016 Smith Neil 2006 Climate change also affects how often disasters due to extreme weather hazards happen Disasters usually hit people in developing countries harder than people in wealthy countries Over 95% of deaths from disasters happen in low income countries and those countries lose a lot more money compared to richer countries For example the damage from natural disasters is 20 times greater in developing countries than in industrialized countries World Bank Disaster Risk Management Luis Flores Ballesteros 54Pesos org 2008 This is because low income countries often do not have well built buildings or good plans to handle emergencies EJEL Volume 10 Issue 1 , American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing, 1999-03 Handbook of Environmentally Conscious Manufacturing Christian N.
