Exhibits and Displays Carol Ng-He, Patti Gibbons, 2021-04-13 Exhibits and displays are booming and in demand at all types of libraries From simple displays of books to full scale museum quality exhibitions library exhibits can highlight collections that surprise visitors tell stories and engage audiences in innovative ways Often exhibits feature more than books showcasing art photographs archival materials multimedia elements as well as hands on activities Stepping outside traditional walls digital exhibits reach audiences beyond the circulation desk and pave another way for libraries to share information promote resources and even lead change in the community Despite the growing interest most library and information science LIS programs do not include exhibit development courses It is not uncommon for librarians learn exhibit production on the job or through resources in the museum sector Wearing many hats librarians absorb exhibit work as part of community outreach initiatives or take on exhibit duties as a general professional interest in the emerging field Exhibits Displays is a practical how to guide that helps librarians unleash their library s potential to engage and wow visitors The guide explains how to kick start and grow an exhibit program through expert advice insights from professional literature and winning case studies that cover exhibition development from conceptual planning through de installation packing and evaluation Exhibits Display A Practical Guide for Librarians covers Pre planning Curation and content development Project management Graphic design and writing for readability Preservation and collection care Legal considerations and loan registration Installation de installation and maintenance tips Hands on interactives and digital exhibits Educational programming Marketing Audience evaluation Supplemental examples and case studies Librarians in academic public school and special libraries will benefit from Exhibits Displays A Practical Guide for Librarians The book is also an excellent textbook for LIS courses covering exhibition development and outreach

Exhibiting the Archive Peter Lester, 2022-06-24 Exhibiting the Archive examines the role that exhibition plays in archives and analyses the impact they are understood to have on how users and visitors experience the archive Drawing on research conducted in Europe North America and Australia the book analyses the key theoretical and social influences on exhibition making in archives today and discusses the role of exhibitions in the archives of tomorrow This is the first in depth study to consider exhibition as more than outreach or advocacy it frames exhibition as an encounter with archives and with people and interprets it as a mechanism for change within the archive Against a backdrop of increasing digital activity Lester asks what experience within the physical space of the archive could be Drawing on ideas of spatiality and embodiment as well as social justice and activism Lester considers the role of exhibitions within the physical archive and the part they can play in reshaping how experience is understood to happen within it Exhibiting the Archive offers a new perspective on the archive that will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of archives and records The discussions of cutting edge practice offer new insights into how exhibitions are conceived and made and will therefore be of interest to practitioners around the world
