Wars of Latin America, 1948-1982 René De La Pedraja, 2013-04-29 This book continues the narrative begun by the author in Wars of Latin America 1899 1941 It provides a clear and readable description of military combat occurring in Latin America from 1948 to the start of 1982 In an unusual peaceful lull Latin America experienced no wars from 1942 to 1947 Although the text concentrates on combat narrative matters of politics business and international relations appear as necessary to explain the wars The author draws on many previously unknown sources to provide information never before published The book traces the many insurgencies in Latin America as well as conventional wars Among the highlights are the chapters on the Cuban and Nicaraguan insurrections and on the Bay of Pigs invasion One goal of the text is to explain why of the many insurgencies appearing in Latin America only those in Cuba and Nicaragua were successful in overthrowing governments The book also helps explain why even unsuccessful insurgencies have survived for decades as has happened in Colombia and Peru Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Teaching

Enrique Alvarez Cordova John W. Lamperti, 2006-04-04 Enrique Alvarez Cordova was the son of one of El Salvador's ruling families Intelligent charismatic and above all wealthy he had nothing to gain and a great deal to lose by courting revolution Yet this young man with all the advantages did just that Impressed by the poverty and miserable existence of the rural population Alvarez set about making a change He spent most of his adult life working for reform within the constraints of the existing system serving as minister of agriculture under three governments He turned his own ranch El Jobo into a successful workers cooperative to convince the ruling class that agrarian reform was possible and even profitable In the end however he found that fundamental change was simply beyond the reach of such efforts Embracing armed struggle as a last resort he ultimately became one of the revolution s first casualties Centering on El Salvador s political landscape this biography details the life of one of the nation s little known revolutionaries The book examines the motivations behind Alvarez s choice to become a traitor to his class and embrace political reform first through his work within the government itself and later as president of the Democratic Revolutionary Front FDR the country s primary radical movement Through this lens the work also describes El Salvador s political evolution illuminating the country s internal situation during the 1970s and early 1980s The government condoned assassination of Alvarez and five of his FDR colleagues in November 1980 ended the last hope of avoiding an armed conflict Within two months of the assassinations El Salvador was plunged into a civil war that would last for the next 11 years Other than a few official legal documents the work is compiled from interviews and testimony of those who knew Enrique Alvarez Cordova thus providing a contemporary firsthand perspective The work is also indexed

Cinema and the Sandinistas Jonathan Buchsbaum,2003-10-01 Following the Sandinista Revolution in 1979 young bohemian artists rushed to the newly formed

Nicaraguan national film institute INCINE to contribute to the recovery of national identity through the creation of a national film project Over the next eleven years the filmmakers of INCINE produced over seventy films documentary fiction and hybrids that collectively reveal a unique vision of the Revolution drawn not from official FSLN directives but from the filmmakers own cinematic interpretations of the Revolution as they were living it This book examines the INCINE film project and assesses its achievements in recovering a Nicaraguan national identity through the creation of a national cinema Using a wealth of firsthand documentation the films themselves interviews with numerous INCINE personnel and INCINE archival records Jonathan Buchsbaum follows the evolution of INCINE s project and situates it within the larger historical project of militant revolutionary filmmaking in Latin America His research also raises crucial questions about the viability of national cinemas in the face of accelerating globalization and technological changes which reverberate far beyond Nicaragua s experiment in revolutionary filmmaking
