Asia On Tour Exploring The Rise Of Asian Tourism:

Asia on Tour Tim Winter, Peggy Teo, T.C. Chang, 2008-09-24 Examining domestic and intra regional tourism the book reveals how improvements in infrastructures ever increasing disposable incomes liberalized economies the inter connectivities of globalization and the lowering of borders both physical and political are now enabling millions of Asians to travel as tourists

Recentring Tourism Geographies in the 'Asian Century' Harng Luh Sin, Mary Mostafanezhad, Joseph M. Cheer, 2022-04-19 This book considers what the transition into the Asian Century means for some of the most urgent issues in the world today such as sustainable development human rights gender equality and environmental change The book critiques Anglo Western centrism in tourism theory and calls on tourism scholars to make radical shifts toward more inclusive epistemology and praxis From the British Century of the 1800s to the American Century of the 1900s to the contemporary Asian Century tourism geographies are deeply entangled in broader shifts in geopolitical power In the shadow of the COVID 19 pandemic the significance of shifts in tourism geographies and the themes addressed in this volume are more urgent than ever That the world faces increasing turmoil is abundantly clear Yet amidst the disruption to the everyday it is hope and compassion but also political economic restructuring that is needed to reset the tourism industry in more sustainable equitable and ethical directions In no uncertain terms the pandemic has forever changed the tourism industry as the world once knew it This book therefore sets out to collectively build on the momentum of the inclusive scholarship that Critical Tourism Studies Asia Pacific is renowned for while also asking readers to pause and reflect on the possibilities and challenges of tourism in a post pandemic Asian Century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

Rethinking Asian Tourism Victor T. King, Ploysri Porananond, 2014-10-16 Rethinking Asian Tourism addresses some of the latest developments in on going tourism research in Southeast Asia and the wider Asia region encompassing in geographical terms Thailand Vietnam Indonesia the Philippines Malaysia Hong Kong Japan and Korea It examines many of the emerging as well as established themes and issues in Asian tourism and promotes the development of critical scholarship within Asia to overcome Anglo Western ethnocentrism in tourism studies of the region There is some attention to such familiar concepts as authenticity commoditisation culture heritage and hosts and guests but more especially to the diversification of phenomena which traditionally would not have been included within the parameters of tourism studies retirees and long stays gastronomy family based leisure popular culture and local branding Above all the book addresses and develops a conceptual understanding from a multidisciplinary perspective of the character experiences encounters perceptions and motivations of local national and intra regional tourism rather than basing concepts perspectives emphases and analyses on Western Asian interactions and on transformations in the West In this respect it encourages a shift in emphasis towards Asianising our understanding of Asian tourism This is one of the first volumes on Asian tourism written primarily by Asians and as such provides them with the opportunity to express their concerns interests and priorities rather than depending on the analyses and interpretations of those from outside the region It also enables a deconstruction of the field of tourism studies acknowledging that it is an open ended shifting fluid and complex category of encounters and events generated by the processes of physical mobility Asian Cultures and Contemporary Tourism Elaine Chiao Ling Yang,Catheryn

Khoo-Lattimore,2018-02-26 This book focuses on cultures that shape contemporary Asian tourist experiences The book consists of 10 chapters which are organised into two themes Collectivist Culture and Wellbeing The chapters cover emerging forms of tourism e g wedding and bridal photography tourism roots affinity tourism and shamanic tourism investigate a wide range of topics e g tourist motivation tourist anxiety and decision making and consider Asian perspectives from diverse backgrounds e g China Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan South Korea Japan Philippines Malaysia Indonesia India Bangladesh and Nepal The book provides tourism researchers students and practitioners a consolidated comprehensive and updated reference for the understanding of Asian tourists The Routledge Handbook of Tourism in Asia C. Michael

Hall,Stephen J. Page,2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future
