Huntsman,2015-11-04 Thinking about Art explores some of the greatest works of art and architecture in the world through the prism of themes instead of chronology to offer intriguing juxtapositions of art and history The book ranges across time and topics from the Parthenon to the present day and from patronage to ethnicity to reveal art history in new and varied lights With over 200 colour illustrations and a wealth of formal and contextual analysis Thinking about Art is a companion guide for art lovers students and the general reader and is also the first A level Art History textbook written by a skilled and experienced teacher of art history Penny Huntsman The book is accompanied by a companion website at www.wiley.com/go/thinkingaboutart

Picturing the Self Gen Doy,2004-09-24 Ideas of selfhood from Descartes theory of I think therefore I am to postmodern notions of the fragmented and de centred self have been crucial to the visual arts Gen Doy explores this relationship from Holbein s Ambassadors and the early modern period up to and beyond Marc Quinn s Self Blood Head Arguing that the importance of subjectivity for art goes far beyond self portraits she explores such topics as self expression the self work and consumption self presentation photography and the theatre of the self the marginalized beggars and asylum seekers and the real me A wide range of artists including Tracey Emin Jeff Wall Eugene Palmer and Karen Knorr are discussed as well as historical material from earlier periods Art and Advertising Joan Gibbons,2011-05-12 Art and advertising are often seen as potential enemies with the one being free from commercial concerns and the other dependent upon them In this clearly written and wide ranging book Joan Gibbons argues rather for a mutually enriching relationship between the two showing how artists have reached a wider audience by embracing the tactics and mass media of advertising and how advertising has employed issues and strategies of contemporary art Charting key points of overlap and antagonism she looks at the work of artists from Andy Warhol Barbara Kruger and Victor Burgin to Sylvie Fleurie and Svetlana Heger and at landmark campaigns from Silk Cut to Benetton s Shock of Reality Exploring cutting edge advertising from the influential work of David Carson to Wieden and Kennedy s Nike campaigns and the art and advertising work of Tony Kaye she also looks at the increasing endorsement of art by highly branded products such as Absolut vodka to argue that art and advertising need not be mutually exclusive terms Never Use Futura Douglas Thomas,2017-10-31 It s everywhere including the moon on the commemorative plaque left by Apollo 11 astronauts Nike sneakers the artworks of Barbara Kruger Ed Ruscha and Jenny Holzer 2001 A Space Odyssey credits Domino s Pizza boxes Absolut Vodka bottles and Red Bull cans Richard Nixon used it for his presidential campaign as did Hillary Clinton Indeed Futura is one of the most used fonts in the world today the typeface of modern design more so even than Helvetica This fascinating book explores the cultural history and uses of a face that is so common you might not notice until you start looking and then you can't escape it Douglas Thomas traces Futura from its Bauhaus inspired origin in Paul Renner's 1924 design to its current role as the go to choice for corporate work logos motion pictures and advertisements Never Use Futura is illuminating sometimes playful reading not just for type nerds but for anyone interested in how typefaces are used take on meaning and become a language of their own
